BJP brass may take a call on 3 CMs by Sunday

Tough job for party in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh with multiple influential contenders lobbying for the hot seat

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

AMID a day of intense speculation over who will be the chief ministers of Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh, many elected MLAs, including former Rajasthan CM Vasundhara Raje, met the top leadership of the BJP reportedly to lobby for the CM post.

With the hectic parleys still underway, party sources said the names of the three chief ministers will be known by Sunday. "How can anyone announce the names without appointing observers to states and without holding the legislature party meeting? The BJP goes by the book, not by hearsay. Wait by Sunday evening, almost everything will be clear as the central leadership is on the job," said a source.

Raje had reached Delhi late on Wednesday night, creating a buzz that she would meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Home Minister Amit Shah, and BJP president J P Nadda on Thursday. For the record, however, Raje said she came to Delhi to meet a member of her family.

Renuka Singh, who on Thursday resigned as Union minister of state for tribal affairs, met Nadda and had a 30-minute discussion. The meeting sparked speculation that she is a strong contender for the Chhattisgarh CM post. Singh had contested from the Bharatpur-Sonhat constituency and won. Speaking to reporters, Singh, however, claimed that she was not in the race for CM. She belongs to a tribal community and holds immense influence. According to BJP sources, choosing her will help the party in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections.

The other names doing the rounds within BJP circles are former CM Raman Singh, who served Chhattisgarh for 15 years, and bureaucrat-turned-politician O P Chaudhary. Some BJP leaders feel Chaudhary has better chances as he is a strong OBC face and enjoys the trust of both Modi and Shah.

Meanwhile, Rajasthan MLA Mahant Balaknath Yogi also met senior BJP leaders in Delhi. According to party insiders, the BJP's central leadership has a tough job in Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh with multiple influential contenders lobbying for the hot seat.

Apart from Raje, Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore, Ashwini Vaishnaw, Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, and Arjun Meghwal are in the race in Rajasthan.

Notably, incumbent Madhya Pradesh CM Shivraj Singh Chauhan, who has developed a strong vote bank in the state, has chosen to stay back instead of rushing to Delhi to meet central leaders. Pralhad Singh Patel, Narendra Singh Tomar, Rajendra Shukla, and Jyotiraditya Scindia are the other contenders for the CM post in MP.

What happens next

The BJP is expected to name central observers for electing the leaders of its legislature parties in MP, Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan on Friday. The observers will travel to the states to oversee meetings of newly elected MLAs, who will formally name the CMs

We are sevaks, not rulers, says new TS CM Revanth

B KARTHEEK @ Hyderabad

ANUMULA Revanth Reddy got going on day one by ensuring the dismantling of barriers placed in front of Pragathi Bhavan (the CM's official residence-cum-office that will now be called Praja Bhavan), a symbolic gesture that indicated his government would be transparent and accessible to the people.

On Thursday afternoon, in front of a massive gathering at LB Stadium in Hyderabad, Revanth was sworn in by Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan as the second chief minister of Telangana. The Governor also administered the oath of office to Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka, sworn in as deputy CM, and 10 other Congress MLAs.

Top party leaders including Congress Parliamentary Party chairperson Sonia Gandhi, AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge, Congress MP Rahul Gandhi, Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, Karnataka CM Siddaramaiah, Himachal Pradesh CM Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu and Karnataka DyCM DK Shivakumar attended the event.

After being sworn in, the CM signed two files — implementing the promised six guarantees and providing a job to Thumari Rajini, a differently abled person and MCom graduate.

Addressing thousands of his admirers, Revanth stressed, "We are not rulers but sevaks". He noted that with the establishment of "Indiramma Rajyam", people have got liberty and added that they will get social justice soon.

Cassation court to hear case of naval veterans

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

THE third hearing of the eight Indian naval veterans on death row in Qatar was held on Thursday in Doha in the Court of Appeal. The next hearing, which is expected within the next few days, will now be in the Cassation court.

A court of Cassation is a high-instance court, which is the highest court of appeal. Such courts do not re-examine the facts of a case, they only interpret the relevant law.

"The next hearing (in the Cassation court) will make things more clear. There is optimism after Prime Minster Narendra Modi met the Emir of Qatar, Sheikh Tamim bin Hamas Al Thani, in Dubai on the sidelines of COP28 in Doha," said a source.

"We had a good conversation on the potential of bilateral partnership and the well-being of the Indian community in Qatar," Modi later posted on X.

December 18 is observed as Qatar's National Day. It is also a day when the Emir grants pardons to prisoners. Families of these veterans are hoping that these eight are pardoned by the Emir and repatriated.

Some family members of these naval veterans had filed a mercy petition seeking pardon of the Emir in the past.

Four days ago, Qatar had allowed the Indian ambassador there to meet the eight naval veterans in prison. The three hearings on the appeal so far were on November 23, November 30 and December 7.

K'taka saw 18,461 kids out of school in 2022-23

PURAN CHOUDHARY
@ Bengaluru

IN the last six years, 71,945 students in Karnataka have dropped out of school, according to data from the Primary School and Literacy Department. Despite various initiatives by the State and Union governments and the implementation of the Right to Education (RTE) policy, the State is in the 7th position for the highest number of dropouts in schools in the country.

Karnataka's dropout rate has worried experts who want the authorities to take proactive steps and organise larger awareness campaigns to bring children back to school. They also want the authorities to introduce an early warning system to predict possible dropouts.

As per the data provided by Samagra Shikshana Karnataka (SSK) under the Department of Education, during 2022-2023, 18,461 children dropped out. The highest number of 13,267 for the academic year was recorded for children in the age group of 6-14, who are mandated under the RTE Act. They include children who had either dropped out or never enrolled in school. The rest of 5,194 students were from 9,10 and PU grades.

According to Srikanth, State Project Officer, SSK, the study for 2022-2023 was conducted in January through the School Operation Survey with the help of teachers and the numbers available with the administration.

"Along with teachers, our officers also visit the brick factories, hotels, slums and other areas where children usually work. Post this, all of them are brought back to school."

"Replying to a question during the winter session in Belagavi on the initiatives taken by the government, Madhu Bangarappa, Minister for Primary School Education and Literacy, said that once students are found to be out of school, notices are issued to their parents and a deadline of one month is given to them to appear before the District Child Welfare Committee.

40% COMMISSION PROBE

Kempanna submits 6K pages of documents to Nagamohan Das panel

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA Contractors' Association president D Kempanna and other office-bearers of the association on Thursday submitted 6,000 pages of documents to Justice Nagamohan Das Commission to substantiate their allegation of demand for 40% commission to clear the bills of contractors during the BJP rule in the State.

Addressing reporters, Kempanna said they also submitted documents in support of their allegation against the present Congress government. The Commission was set up in August to probe the 40% commission allegation against the previous government headed by Basavaraj Bommai.

Kempanna said they submitted documents related to bills and works in the Public Works, Irrigation, Rural Development and Panchayat Raj and other departments, and in BBMP limits in Bengaluru. He said some more documents will be submitted to Justice Nagamohan Das in the coming days as the association is waiting for RTI replies. "I cannot reveal details of the documents submitted to the Commission," he added.

Kempanna said earlier there was an allegation against him that he did not submit any proof to substantiate his charge against the previous government. "But now we have submitted 6000 pages of documents to the Commission," he added.

He said some documents show that the bills of some persons, who are not contractors, have been cleared.

Referring to the 40% commission charge against the previous government, Kempanna alleged that there is corruption in the present Congress government too. "Since this government is only a few months old, it is difficult to reveal the percentage of commission. Our association is not in favour or against any political party or government," he said.

Many hurdles to implement OPS: Minister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

REVENUE Minister Krishna Byre Gowda on Thursday attributed the delay in the implementation of Old Pension Scheme (OPS) for state government employees to non-submission of a report by the committee formed for the purpose.

Replying to a query in the Legislative Council on behalf of CM Siddaramaiah, he said the committee constituted to look into the matter made no progress. The government is in a dilemma as it is likely to lose the Provident Fund money, which has been deposited.

Stating that reverting to OPS from the New Pension Scheme (NPS) is a tough task, he said the government, however, will implement it. The Congress party had promised to implement it in its election manifesto. The government is studying how to do away with the hurdles. Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh had decided to go back to OPS long ago, but they are yet to do so. The Rajasthan government has written to the Centre to withdraw the PF money it has deposited. Karnataka will follow suit, he said.

Byre Gowda said the committee will get more manpower to complete the study and submit its report.

Yalaberu is still a 'no network coverage' area

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

YALABERU, a remote village in Ajri gram panchayat limits in Kundapur taluk, is yet to get mobile connectivity. The reason for this is the village is in the midst of the Western Ghats. Surendra, a resident of this obscure village, said to make phone calls, people have to walk for about two km. The distance gets even longer for Internet access.

Some villagers said that they can access the Internet only if they go to Ajri, which is four km away from Yalaberu. For better connectivity, they have to travel 10 km further to Siddapur.

Sources said Shivamogga MP BY Raghavendra has initiated steps to ensure Internet connectivity in and around Byndoor as it comes under his Shivamogga parliamentary constituency. Though a tower of BSNL has been sanctioned, it is yet to be erected at Yalaberu.

There are around 70 houses at Yalaberu. Students from the village go to schools and colleges at Siddapura, Kundapura, Shankaranarayana and Koteshwara towns.

Raghavendra said 4G towers have been sanctioned to 25 places in Byndoor taluk. Work on erection of towers is on. A tower could not be erected at Yalaberu for want of a proper site. The connectivity issue will be addressed at the earliest, he added.

Tenant's daughter suffers burns as landlady throws chemical at her

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 14-year-old girl paid the price for the fight between her mother and their landlady over some trivial issue in the city.

The landlady vented her anger at the girl by throwing some chemical on her right leg. The girl, who is a high school student, suffered 40% burns, and is now undergoing treatment at the Victoria Hospital's burns ward.

The victim has been identified as Umme Kulsum, daughter of Zakira Bhanu, 46, residents of Metro Layout in Chandra Layout police limits.

Bhanu told The New Indian Express that her family moved into the house seven months ago and they have been facing problems from the landlady since then. "She quarrels with us for silly reasons," Bhanu said.

She said the landlady also threw the chemical at her cats and other pets which entered the premises. She filed a complaint against the landlady, identified as Pooja Gowda, in Chandra Layout police station on Tuesday.

"We are fed up with the house owner's behaviour and want to vacate the house. But she is not returning our deposit money. We keep asking her to return the money, but she doesn't. She insists that we first vacate the house and collect the deposit money after a new tenant moves in," Bhanu said.

"We fear that she will never return our money. She makes an issue out of everything. She wants my daughters to accompany her wherever she goes. I am scared to send my daughters with her. The problem started after I refused to send my daughters with her. My daughter is unable to walk and is being treated in the burns ward of Victoria Hospital. I am not sure what kind of chemical she threw at my daughter's leg. My daughter returned home screaming for help," Bhanu said.

Meanwhile, the police have asked the complainant to furnish details regarding the treatment being given to her daughter. "We are not sure what kind of chemical was thrown at the victim. Even earlier, the victim's mother approached us seeking our intervention to help her vacate the house. The statements of the suspect have been recorded," said a police officer.

BDA proposes ₹3,650/sqft for Karanth Lyt

Board yet to give approval for rate; Market price is Rs 6,000/sqft; Allotment of sites yet to commence

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

Dr Shivaram Karanth Layout is ready but the allotment process is getting delayed

THERE appears to be an unwarranted delay in the allotment of sites of Dr K Shivarama Karanth Layout. Located near Kempegowda International Airport, the layout is almost complete and allotment was to commence in the first week of December, but it doesn't look like that will happen any time soon.

Bangalore Development Authority's second largest layout is made up with 34,000 sites developed on 3,546 acres and 12 guntas, of which 12,000 sites would be allotted for the public.

"The BDA has proposed fixing the price at Rs 3,650 per sqft for the layout, and the file was placed before its Board for consent on September 25. The Board, its final authority, comprises the Urban Development additional chief secretary and heads of civic agencies, and sends its recommendation to the State government for its consent. There has been no word on a green signal for the allotment, though over months have elapsed since its meet," a source said. In fact, the minutes of the meeting have also not been released.

Another source said the rate fixed by BDA was quite nominal as the market rate was around Rs 6,000 per sqft feet in the area. "The State had approved Rs 5,337 crore for the formation of the layout and with this rate fixed by the BDA, it will recover the investment. It will be a no-profit, no-loss venture."

The layout is unique in that it is the first BDA layout being developed under the supervision of the Supreme-Court appointed Justice AV Chandrashekhar Committee (JCC). It had in a press briefing mid-September stated that the formation of roads and drains was on the verge of completion, and site numbering was being done. The Committee specified the first week of December as the site allotment deadline.

Priority would be given to landlosing farmers with 15,000 sites earmarked for them, 12,000 for the public, and 2,000 for revenue site holders, while 4,500 sites are corner sites which would be auctioned in the future, it stated.

There are multiple reasons attributed to the delay. A senior official told TNIE, "The Board wants to increase the rates proposed by the BDA in order to garner more revenue. The delay could be as it is looking at revising them." Another official said, "The term of the JCC will end by December 31. With the team out of its way, BDA will have a free hand in the layout."

BDA Commisioner N Jayaram was unreachable. BDA Finance Member A Lokesh refused to share information.

OOS students: Experts question govt's claims, seek transparency

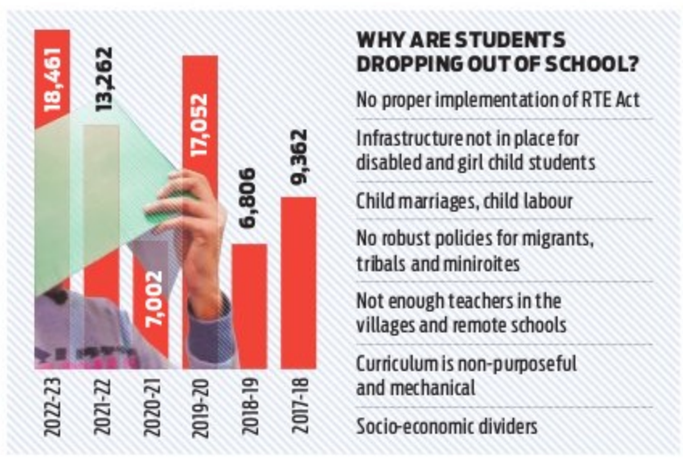
MADHU Bangarappa, Minister for Primary School Education and Literacy, said, "On 1st and 15th of every month, information should be given to the Block Education Officer about the steps taken to mainstream the out of school children." The minister also spoke about special training programmes held for children and migrant families and for teachers. A sum of Rs 208.08 lakh has been released for such initiatives during 2021-2022, he added.

Experts are not convinced with the government's claims and have questioned the transparency of the number recorded. They flagged that the numbers could be much higher than reported. Sheshagiri KM Rao, Education Specialist, UNICF, said teachers should also be trained to integrate these students into the mainstream. "The last mile" that involves making sure children don't leave schools again, learn and pick up skills still remains a challenge. Rao said migrants are not being mapped and the administration should adopt robust systems.

Nagasimha Rao, Director, Child Rights Trust (CRT), said students should be provided counselling in the post-Covid era that have made them restless and disinterested in education. "Surveys should be conducted at the end of the year and not beginning to analyse the exact number of dropouts. We need to repeat the benefits of education to parents constantly as public memory is short. Other issues such as child-friendly schools, infrastructure for disabled, rehabilitation measures and coordination among various departments are pressing issues in the system," he added.

KE Radhakrishna, educationist, said the "causal approach" towards education is detrimental and not just stopping dropouts, but also hiring and training teachers.



FOOTPATH ENCROACHMENTS

RETD ENGINEERS REACH OUT TO LOKAYUKTA

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@Bengaluru

RETIRED BBMP engineers have approached the Lokayukta against the current engineers, alleging that dereliction of duty on their part has led to encroachment of footpaths and construction of unauthorized buildings in Jayanagar 2nd Block. The retired engineers said they have lost faith in BBMP and have pinned their hopes on the Lokayukta to take action against the erring officials and clear encroachments.

Retired executive engineer of Technical Vigilance Committee under Commissioner (TVCC) Hanumanthe Gowda alleged that two years ago, footpath encroachments were brought to the notice of the executive engineer, assistant executive engineer, ward engineer and revenue officials attached to BBMP South Zone.

"Had BBMP officials taken action after the complaint, the owners would not have come up with unauthorized constructions on the footpath. There is a government order that BBMP can reclaim the land and also withdraw the licence issued by it. As they were not taking any action, the matter was brought to the notice of the Lokayukta. We want Lokayukta to inspect and book BBMP officials for their laxity," Gowda said.

The retired official urged action against the officials for dereliction of duty that had led to encroachment. Echoing this, retired chief engineer Muni Krishna said, "BBMP has failed to prevent construction of illegal buildings on the footpath, it has even issued a trade licence to a hotel built on a footpath behind BBMP South Zone Commissioner's office. Though markings were done on the encroachments, the owners have erased them," he said.

Muni Krishna said he has lost faith in BBMP officials and only the Lokayukta can ensure justice by clearing the encroachments.

Responding to the development, Yerappa Reddy, executive engineer, Chickpet sub-division, stated that a spot inspection was done earlier and Palike served a notice under Section 248 (1) of the BBMP Act, 2020, stating that the construction at Jayanagar 2nd Block (site number 28) was unauthorized. "As the land in contention was considered 'marginal land' (meant for pathways and saplings) some have raised buildings on them," Reddy said.

KSRTC to start parcel service from next week

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

KARNATAKA State Road Transport Corporation's (KSRTC) ambitious parcel service will take off from next week. The bus corporation, which has been on the lookout to augment its revenue, has pinned its hopes on parcel service using trucks.

KSRTC, which used to carry parcels on a limited scale on its buses, will now be operating 20 trucks which will deliver the parcels to the designated addresses. The service is expected to give tough competition to private players and increase its revenue.

KSRTC MD Anbu Kumar said "The trucks for parcel services are ready. We are gearing up to launch the service next week onwards." In the current Namma Cargo service offered by KSRTC, parcels are loaded on to buses and people have to head to the KSRTC bus stand to send their parcels. The recipient also has to claim the parcel only at the bus stand. However, with the revamped service, KSRTC officials said parcels will be delivered to people at their doorstep. They said they had purchased 20 trucks of 6-tonne capacity for the purpose. "With the present parcel service, the bus corporation is making more than Rs 1 crore per month. With the truck service, we wish to mop up more revenue. Based on the response, we will add more trucks to the parcel service," the official said.

Asked if KSRTC's parcel service charges will be lower than what private operators charge, so that people who are already availing of the services might be interested in shifting to the government service, Anbu Kumar said they are exploring all options.

'Meet to Sleep' to promote women's safety in public spaces

NAMRATA SINDWANI @Bengaluru

INTENDING to make women feel safe, fearless and comfortable in public spaces, a unique 'meet to sleep' is being organised in Bengaluru on December 10 from 2-5 pm.

Blank Noise, a Bengaluru-based community proposed this idea in 2007, mobilising women to confront their fears making 'trust' a priority over taking measures like carrying a pepper spray around in public spaces. The organisation in association with several feminist allies have been rooting for asserting the 'right to live defenceless' and 'free from fear'.

Founder Director of Blank Noise, Jasmine Patheeja, explained that every citizen's relationship with their city and public spaces is unique. In common circumstances, when a person is commented at by a stranger in public, feels uncomfortable.

In the case of women, they are exposed to even more uncomfortable experiences, when they are whistled at or stared inappropriately while walking on the streets or sitting in public spaces. Jasmine sharing her experience with TNIE of how this idea came into existence said, "I wished to sleep in Cubbon Park and despite being with my colleagues I couldn't."

When a person is lying down on the ground, they become more alert of the surroundings. These sounds are misunderstood for the presence of a person in their vicinity or a possible threat to them. Hence, it is crucial to build trust among women and people from different gender minority groups to feel safe in public places even if they are 'defenceless' to be saving themselves.

Along with 'meet to sleep', the team has initiated campaigns like 'walk towards healing', building testimonies of clothes people were wearing when they faced sexual or physical violence.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

08th December: Today's planetary patterns are contradictory, to say the least. They advise caution on the one hand, but extravagance on the other. They also offer a simple solution to any awkward situations: always act with care, consideration and courtesy. Friends and family will then be willing to back you.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
What a strange time this is. Friends are being unpredictable and events are no longer running true to form. For every tie or association which now enters your life, another could come into being next month. The only difference will be that they'll be growing gradually softer.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It's difficult to think of a busier time but, when all the planets are occupying such distinctive positions in your horoscope, you must pace yourself properly. Stretch yourself by all means, but relax as well. And in matters of the heart, put your feelings first, social pressures second.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Rewards for recent endeavours will come your way before long, possibly today. You should end the week feeling wealthier, wiser and more secure. If you're aware of the affection that others feel for you, you will also feel more loved. And that in turn will encourage success in other areas of your life.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You're such a worrier, but never give way to negative thoughts. Don't allow events close to home to undermine you, but please do understand that it's getting to grips with intimate and family affairs that will set you up for the future. Bury your head in the sand no longer!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Your mind seems to be cluttered up with so many thoughts, it's hard to know what to do next. The sages of old used to talk about the virtues of emptying the mind of all trivia, but then that's easier said than done! Whatever the case, do try to make some time for yourself.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
There is still plenty of tension around, but you can afford to take a deep breath and plan for a future free from certain imaginary worries and illusory fears. The next week could bring its share of mystery, so have your answers ready - and get a grip on the facts.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
An additional factor is introduced into your horoscope today - the need to pay for your plans. You're on the crest of a wave, but a strong nerve is necessary to carry you forward. Don't let petty distractions get you down. After all, you still have much to achieve that is so worthwhile.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You can think about what exactly you need to do next. You could use your time to bring family and domestic affairs into the open. The Moon indicates that you could be somewhat volatile, but that you are also entitled to insist only on the highest standards.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Whoever you are, whatever you have been through, and no matter how much has been stirred up, you must understand that what happens to you is part of an unfolding pattern. Recent events have given you the chance to move a little closer towards your destiny.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Being mistress, or master, of your own future, is more important to you than it once was. You should make an almighty effort to attain your major ambitions, both professional and otherwise. And, if you have a chance to put a loved one's mind at rest, please do so without delay.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The next few days may be emotionally challenging, but you should not run away from difficulties. The truth is that other people will be offering you very good advice, together with a totally new way of looking at yourself. You can now concentrate on boosting your self-esteem.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Inspiration begins to take over from purely routine and mundane considerations. A world cruise would suit you down to the ground. Failing that, how about a spot of spiritual investigation? In other words, you have a choice between a trip into outer space and an exploration of inner space!

Woman techie on Metro molested during peak hour, man held

Offender was out on bail for theft case

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

A woman commuter travelling by a Green Line Metro train from Rajaji Nagar was molested by a man as she was alighting the train at Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Metro Station to change lines on Thursday morning. In dramatic scenes inside the station, the perpetrator was hotly chased by Metro security staff and nabbed immediately. The woman filed a complaint against him at Upparpet police station.

It was later discovered that the molester was out on bail in connection with a theft case.

According to a Metro source, "The lady was deboarding her train on Platform 4 of Kempegowda Station at 9.40am, and was on her way to her work spot near Magadi Road. Taking advantage of peak hour, Lokesh Achar, who was standing behind her, touched her inappropriately."

The woman screamed loudly and the culprit rushed from the spot and hopped on to the escalator. "On hearing the commotion, security officer Puttamadaiah and assistant security officer Diwakar rushed to the concourse level and apprehended Achar when the escalator reached there."

Security staff interrogated him. "The molester is employed in the catering industry and has connections in the film industry. He had two Metro cards," the source said.

The woman was counselled by Metro staff who suggested she file a police complaint so that legal action could be taken against Achar. The woman visited the nearby Upparpet police station and filed a complaint against her molester. "She only filed a non-congnisable report (NCR) as she was reluctant to book an FIR," police said. BMRCL staff brought Achar to the police station.

Police later found that Achar had been booked in April 2023 for stealing a mobile from a woman inside a BMTC bus. "Police had recovered a total of 20 mobile phones and a two-wheeler from his residence. He was out on bail in that case," another source added.

BMRCL staff said that following an incident of molestation last month at Kempegowda Station, vigil and surveillance was increased at Metro stations during peak hours to prevent any recurrence. "Today's quick action was an outcome efforts initiated since then for safety of women," said a senior security official.

The New Indian Express had highlighted the peak hour scene in the Metro in an earlier report, with commuters suggesting a second women's coach to ensure safe travel.

Relief for Seetharam in DA case against ex-MD of Cauvery Nigam

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Special Court for Lokayukta cases has discharged MR Seetharam, former minister and chairman of Ramaiah Education Society, and Chikkarevanna, who was the executive director of Professional Global Infrastructure Private Ltd., in the disproportionate assets case against the then Managing Director of Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Ltd TN Chikkarayappa.

They were accused of abetting and aiding Chikkarayappa to accumulate and legalise his alleged illegal assets. The court, however, refused to discharge NK Cibi Chakravarthy, owner of Kannan Borewells, and one Dr Mohan Kumar M in the case. Chakravarthy and Dr Kumar are facing charges of abetting and aiding Chikkarayappa to accumulate and legalise his alleged illegal assets.

Judge KM Radhakrishna passed the order after hearing the applications filed by the four accused. While working as an executive engineer in Bengaluru Urban ZP from 2000 to 2003, Chikkarayappa entrusted a project estimated at Rs 2.5 crore to drill borewells to Chakravarthy. For doing this favour, Chakravarthy, as a benami, purchased a site for Rs 20 lakh in 2001 at Dollars Colony and built a house for Chikkarayappa and his family.

Eventually, the house was registered in the names of Chikkarayappa's father-in-law and sister-in-law by way of a sale deed executed by Chakravarthy for Rs 62 lakh. In 2007, Chikkarayappa made his wife file a civil suit against her father for her rights over ancestral properties. The house was registered in Chikkarayappa's wife's name by way of a compromise decree of partition in 2018.

Chikkarayappa allegedly bought a car in Chakravarthy's name and a sofa set worth Rs 18 lakh for his house. Chakravarthy also rented a flat in Pebble Bay Apartment by paying Rs 10 lakh as deposit and Rs 1 lakh as rent per month for Chikkarayaappa's daughter and her husband. The court said these transactions led to suspicion against Chakravarthy and there is a prima facie case to frame charges against him. Similarly, there is a prima facie case against Dr Kumar, who paid Rs 25 lakh to Chikkarayappa's daughter to complete her medical course. Seetharam was accused of giving a loan of Rs 50 lakh from his Society to Chikkarayappa's daughter to do her MD in Pediatrics. The court ruled that the charges against him are baseless.

Chikkarevanna was accused of paying Rs 25 lakh for Chikkarayappa's daughter's course.

CONGRESS MAY NOMINATE SONIA TO RS FROM K'TAKA

AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge, state party leaders to propose idea; Priyanka Gandhi likely to contest from Rae Bareli

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

WITH the Congress pinning its hopes on South India to win more seats in the 2024 Lok Sabha, in the wake of the party clinching Telangana and being in power in Karnataka, there was a buzz that senior leader Sonia Gandhi would be nominated as a Rajya Sabha member from Karnataka.

The idea is to boost the morale of the party's rank and file in two Congress-ruled states, besides neighbouring Andhra Pradesh, to re-establish the dominance the party had enjoyed in these states during the nineties, observed political pundits. It is also to bolster the Congress party's influence in the South, as the ruling DMK in Tamil Nadu is part of the I.N.D.I.A bloc.

It is also important for the grand old party to maintain the tempo of the party's back-to-back victories in Karnataka and Telangana ahead of the Lok Sabha elections, especially as the BJP is once again banking on the image of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Leaders from the state, including AICC president Mallikarjuna Kharge, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and DyCM D K Shivakumar are eager to put forth the proposal before Sonia, according to sources. "She may not contest the Lok Sabha polls from Rae Bareli, and her daughter Priyanka Gandhi is likely to take up the seat. Sonia Gandhi and the party leadership will take a call at the appropriate time," maintained a minister in the Siddaramaiah cabinet.

On April 2, 2024, three Congress RS members from Karnataka -- Dr L Hanumanthaiah, Syed Naseer Hussain and G C Chandrashekar -- are retiring and the party leadership will take a call whether to renominate them or not. With 136 MLAs, the Congress can retain all the three seats. "If Sonia Gandhi accepts the proposal to be nominated from Karnataka, no one will refuse to sacrifice his seat, and we still have some time to go about it. As of now we have not proposed this to Sonia Gandhi," clarified a senior KPCC leader.

Ashoka takes on Siddu govt over drought relief to ryots

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA @ Belagavi

LEADER of Opposition in the Legislative Assembly R Ashoka tried to put the S tate government on the mat on Thursday by highlighting its inability to tackle the prevailing drought situation. Lashing out at the government for pointing fingers at the Union government over releasing compensation against crop loss to farmers, he demanded that it write off crop loans up to Rs 2 lakh borrowed from cooperative societies.

Initiating a discussion on drought, Ashoka said the government has not taken adequate steps to tackle the drinking water problem, scarcity of fodder or arrest the migration of agricultural labourers. During the BJP dispensation, a dry kit containing food items was distributed to stop their migration to cities to seek wages, apart from opening fodders banks and providing funds for supply of drinking water.

In addition to providing jobs under MGNREGA, 30-90 human days of employment could be generated under NDRF norms, so the government should exploit it to stop migration, he said. Though the government claims there are enough funds in DCs' accounts, he noted that they can be used for drilling borewells and purchasing fodder for livestock.

Stating that the BJP government had never waited for Central funds, Ashoka said crop loss relief was more under NDRF norms and in case of dry land, it was double the amount. Unfortunately, the State government has announced only Rs 2,000 for farmers, but not released it yet. He also opposed making registration mandatory under the Farmer Registration and Unified beneficiary InformaTion System (FRUITS) and requested that money be credited through direct benefit transfer.

Urging the government to negotiate with private borewell owners in advance, he said the impact of drought will be seen early next year. He also listed out some demands to address the drought situation.

GET FUNDS FROM CENTRE, DKS TELLS BJP LEADERS

DYCM DK Shivakumar on Thursday pressed the BJP to bring drought relief funds from the Centre, rather than criticise the State Government's relief efforts. He told reporters, "BJP leaders are busy criticising the government. Instead, they should talk to the Centre and get funds, and have the number of MGNREGA man days increased to 150... The revenue and agriculture ministers were the first to carry out drought assessment and submit a report to the Centre, and seek drought relief, but no funds have reached us. Let the BJP submit its own report to the Centre and get us relief." Deputy commissioners of all drought-affected districts have been instructed to provide drinking water and fodder for 'goshalas', he added. ENS @ Belagavi

IN order to address the problems in dialysis centres, the State Government has decided to appoint new service agencies to operate the centres. During the Question Hour in the Assembly, Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao said in the wake of expiry of contracts of earlier agencies, the government has floated new tenders to appoint new agencies.

"The number of dialysis centres will be increased from 169 to 219. The number of dialysis machines will be increased from 649 to 800," he added. Stop loan recovery from farmers: Bommai to govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

SENIOR BJP leader and former CM Basavaraj Bommai urged the State Government to stop the forceful recovery of loans from farmers and give them fresh loans as they are in distress due to drought.

The farmers are in distress, but the State Government has not released compensation, but pointing its fingers towards the Union Government, he said and added that the previous BJP government had disbursed Rs 2,000 crore to farmers through the DBT during floods.

Bommai said the government promised to give Rs 2,000 to each farmer which was nothing but an insult to the farmers. As per the Central guidelines, the State must announce a compensation of Rs 6,000 per hectare for dry farming and Rs 18,000 for irrigated land. The Kisan Samman programme launched by the BJP government has been stopped, he added.

The former CM also demanded that the government recommend a NIA probe into CM Siddaramaiah sharing a dais with a cleric who he alleged was having links with ISIS.

Bommai said cases were filed against the moulvi for making inflammatory speeches in Vijayapura.

On DyCM DK Shivakumar not attending the ongoing Belagavi winter session, Bommai said the former was busy in Telangana politics and he must tell what's important, people's problems or politics.

Chaos in Assembly over stabbing of BJP leader

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

THE Assembly on Thursday witnessed chaotic scenes over the recent stabbing of a BJP leader in Belagavi.

BJP leader Prithvi Singh, an associate of Gokak MLA Ramesh Jarkiholi, alleged that he was stabbed on December 4 by Congress MLC Channaraj Hattoholi and two of his associates. The BJP is demanding the arrest of Hattoholi and his two associates. Although the police have registered an FIR against the trio, the BJP wants stricter charges under IPC Sections 307, 397, 398 filed against them.

Even as all the BJP MLAs were rushing to enter the well of the House to protest, Leader of Opposition R Ashoka stopped them and asked them to return to their seats.

Meanwhile, Belagavi MLA Abhay Patil raised the issue of the recent arrest of BJP Corporator Abhijit Jawalkar in Belagavi over a trivial issue. Calling the arrest unlawful, Patil demanded the suspension of Tilakwadi CPI. Patil, who was keen on staging a dharna in the well of the House. He too was stopped by Ashoka. Patil, however, entered the well of the House and protested alone as other BJP members had staged a walkout over the stabbing incident. Interestingly, a large section of BJP MLAs were keen on staging a dharna to corner the government in the stabbing case. Several BJP legislators, including Abhay Patil, were upset over Ashoka's refusal to protest. The government finally was able to derail the debate on the stabbing issue when the Opposition BJP members staged a walkout instead of staging a dharna in the House.

Earlier, MLAs BY Vijayendra, Sunil Kumar, Basangouda Patil Yatnal, Suresh Kumar and others demanded the arrest of MLC Hattiholi and urged the government to include Section 307 in the FIR. "The Belagavi police hastily arrested a BJP corporator from a hospital recently even though the case was trivial. In the stabbing incident, the accused used sharp weapons... but the police did not arrest anyone," said Suresh Kumar.

Priyank says no to Savarkar portrait in Assembly Hall

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Belagavi

RDPR Minister Priyank Kharge on Thursday sparked a controversy with his comments on the portrait of Veer Savarkar.

Speaking to the media, Priyank said that he will get the portrait of Veer Savarkar removed from the Assembly Hall in Suvarna Vidhana Soudha immediately if he is allowed to do so.

He said it was better to remove the portrait of Savarkar from the Assembly Hall.

"I do not agree to those principles and ideologies where equality never existed. I will not agree to the ideologies which led to the killing of Mahatma Gandhiji," Priyank said, adding that he would remove the portrait "today itself but it should be done as per the rules".

"We have to wait for the Speaker's decision. I always believe in the Constitution," he added. Questioning as to how Savarkar got the title 'Veer', Priyank asked, "Did the family of Savarkar not write a clemency petition to the British? What was Savarkar's opinion about Gomata (cow). Wasn't he getting a pension from the British?"

The minister said he did not agree with the ideologies of Savarkar and that he has appealed to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to remove the portrait from the Assembly Hall. When asked if former PM Jawaharlal Nehru's portrait should be put up in place of Savarkar, Priyank replied in affirmative saying, "Nehru was in jail for more than 3,000 days and is the first PM of India. Nehru laid a strong foundation for what the BJP claims the country is economically stronger," he added.

Central assistance dips, Karnataka under financial stress: Byre Gowda

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Belagavi

KARNATAKA government has said that the Central assistance to the state has dipped drastically from 23% in 2016-17 to 17% in 2023 causing financial stress on the state.

During the Question Hour in the Council, Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda responded on behalf of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to Congress members' questions and said Karnataka has a deficit of Rs 40,000 crore reduction in Central assistance and this has happened in the last five years.

"The budget in 2016-17 was just over Rs 2 .37 lakh crore, then the assistance was Rs 43, 369 crore (23.3%) while it is over Rs 3 lakh crore in 2023 and we are getting 76,000 crores which is just (17%). This means, if the Centre had maintained the same ratio, then Karnataka should have been receiving more money," he said.

Byre Gowda said the special grants recommended by the 14th Finance Commission to the 15th Finance Commission were a sum of Rs 5,495 crore and an additional interim order passed by the 15th Commission to give grants of Rs 6,000 crore altogether a sum of over Rs 11,000 crore is pending. "However, the Centre is stating that the amount will be considered after the final order by the finance commission," he said, adding that he is confident of the state getting that money by the end of the ongoing financial year.

This apart, the revenue minister said the Centre is also due to give Rs 1,141 crore as GST compensation to the state from 2022. "Of the Rs 2,333 crore, the Centre has allocated the state just Rs 1,191 crore," he said. He said CM Siddaramaiah on August 10 wrote to Union Finance Minister Niramala Sitharaman in this regard. "As of today, the Centre has released Rs 10,337 crore grant for centrally sponsored schemes while no money is being released towards social security schemes," he said

"Overall, if we secure the grants which are due to us, we can reduce the financial stress of Karnataka," he said.

Earlier, MLC UB Venkatesh, who raised the question, alleged that the Centre has not released its share of grants, even though Karnataka is the second-highest tax state.

However, BJP members YA Narayanaswamy and others objected to it and said, "We are ready to discuss the grants allocated by the Centre to the state and how much is utilised." This led to chaos in the House.

BJP smells politics behind scrapping of NEP

FIROZ ROZINDAR @ Belagavi

THE Legislative Council witnessed a heated debate over the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) on Thursday where the Opposition BJP accused the Ruling Congress government of rejecting the policy only for political purpose.

The BJP members questioned the State Government as to why it did not constitute a committee to study the pros and cons of NEP before rejecting it. "It gives the clear impression that it has rejected the policy for political purpose. You should have rejected it based on merit but you have done so merely for political purpose," said BJP MLC Kota Shrinivas Poojari.

Claiming that all private educational institutions in Karnataka have already implemented NEP, he said that the State Government is planning to implement the State Education Policy only in government schools. "The State Government wants to implement SEP for them while private institutions have already implemented NEP. This means that you are discriminating between the rich and poor students," he added.

Minister Santosh Lad who was also present, wanted to know the benefits the students have achieved in the States where NEP has been implemented already.

'CYCLES FOR STUDENTS' SCHEME TO RETURN?

Belagavi: School Education Minister Madhu Bangarappa said that the government will seriously consider reintroducing the scheme to distribute cycles to school children. Replying to a query raised by MLA Pradeep Ishwar, he said the previous government had stopped the scheme and as the new government was sworn in the middle of the year it cannot take any decision on it. But in order to facilitate children coming to school from far away areas, the government was offering Rs 600, he said. While Opposition leader R Ashoka said as the scheme was introduced to encourage children to go to school but not for any political gain, the government should reintroduce the scheme and other members also pressed for it.

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy and TDP supremo N Chandrababu Naidu will visit the cyclone affected areas to take stock of the damage incurred. While Jagan will visit Tirupati and Bapatla districts on Friday, Naidu will visit Guntur and Prakasam districts from Friday.

BJP leader Rathod in preventive custody

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI
@Kalaburagi

IN a dramatic twist of events, the police have taken BJP leader Manikanth Rathod into preventive custody an hour before his press conference to be held on Thursday morning.

Rathod, who lost from Chittapur constituency against RDPR Minister Priyank Kharge in the recent assembly elections, was about to address media at 11.30 am. The reporters at 11 am received an audio message stating that Rathod had been 'gheraoed' at his house on the pretext of giving protection, and requested the reporters to come to his residence at Humnabad Ring Road, where he would reveal some facts with evidence. However, by the time they reached, the police had already taken him under preventive custody.

Police sources said that an employee of ACC (Associated Cement Factory) belonging to Banjara community had committed suicide in Wadi. Apprehending law and order problems in Kalaburagi and Wadi, police have taken Rathod into preventive custody as he is a leader of the Banjara community.

It may be recalled here that Kalaburagi SP Adduru Srinivasalu had given a statement that Rathod misguided the police by saying that his (Rathod) injuries from an accident were caused due to assault by miscreants.

On Wednesday, Srinivasalu had said that Manikanth Rathod has lodged a police complaint that while he was returning to Kalaburagi from Chittapur on Nov 19, some miscreants had stopped his car and attacked him and his friend.

The SP added that it was found in the investigation that they had sustained injuries in an accident. Rathod was to address the press conference to counter the police's statement. BJP condemned the arrest and the party's city unit president Siddaji Patil alleged that the rural development minister and district police are taking revenge against Rathod for booking cases one after an another, they harassing Rathod.

He has requested Rural development Minister Priyank Kharge to take action against the management. FIR was registered against ACC Factory.

Newly sworn-in Telangana CM A Revanth Reddy with Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge and party leaders Sonia Gandhi, Priyanka Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi during his oath taking ceremony in Hyderabad on Thursday | VINAY MADAPU

FOLLOWING the swearing-in of 12 ministers, including the chief minister and deputy chief minister, discussions have surfaced regarding the remaining Cabinet berths.

Sources within the Congress suggest that a Cabinet expansion is likely after MLA-elects take their oaths with the high command working to accommodate prominent leaders, including some defeated candidates. While Nizamabad and Adilabad don't have representation in the initial Cabinet, senior party leaders like P Sudharshan Reddy (Bodhan), Premsagar Rao (Mancherial), G Vivek (Chennur) and G Vinod (Bellampalli) are expected to be inducted i nto the Cabinet.

The party sources said the cabinet expansion will take place in the coming days, with leaders from minority communities also expected to be accommodated through an MLC position. Rumours suggest that Md Shabbir Ali and Md Feroz Khan, will also be included in the Cabinet, awaiting the approval of the high command and chief minister.

Meanwhile, MLA-elects from Nalgonda and Rangareddy districts are anticipating induction into the Cabinet. Sources mentioned that Malreddy Rangareddy, the winning candidate from Ibrahimpatnam, and Komatireddy Rajagopal Reddy, who won from the Munugode seat, are being considered. However, they added that only one Cabinet position will be allocated per family. In that case, there is a chance for either Vivek or Vinod from the Venkatswamy family to make it into the Cabinet.

Suitor arrested for suicide over dowry

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@T'Puram

A resident doctor, whose exorbitant dowry demands allegedly pushed his colleague to suicide, has landed behind bars. The accused, Dr E A Ruwise, attached to the Orthopedic Department of the Government Medical College here, was also suspended from service hours after his arrest from a relative's house in Kollam on Thursday. He was produced in court which sent him to 14 days' judicial custody.

Police said the doctor was arrested on charges of abetting the suicide of fellow resident doctor Dr AJ Shahna and also under sections of the Dowry Prohibition Act. More details of Shahana's suicide note emerged on Thursday, in which she reportedly wrote that huge dowry demands from Ruwise's family was the reason for ending her life. The suicide note asked why Ruwise's family needed so much money and whether love had no value.

The statements of Shahna's family members and circumstantial evidence were against Ruwise, police said. Ruwise allegedly deleted the WhatsApp chats to Shahna in which the dowry demands were raised. Police seized his phone to retrieve messages crucial in establishing his involvement in the episode.

"The marriage had to be called off as her family could not arrange the huge dowry," DCP Nidhinraj P told reporters. According to Shahna's family, Ruwise's family had allegedly demanded 150 sovereigns of gold (worth over Rs 65 lakh), 15 acres of land and a BMW car.

Shahna died by suicide by overdosing on anesthesia at her apartment near the Medical College on Monday. The police initially registered a case of unnatural death, added abetment to suicide charge and sections under dowry prohibition act after Shahana's family gave statements. Ruwise set to lose medical degree.

ACID ATTACKS REMAIN A BLOT THAT NEEDS GOVT AND SOCIETY ACTION

THERE was an unsavoury detail tucked away in the National Crime Records Bureau data for Bengaluru. The city registered six cases of acid attack, the highest for any metropolis in India, last year. The city ranked third in crimes against women, with 3,924 cases registered in 2022—though far behind Delhi, which retains its tag of the most unsafe city for women with 14,158 cases, and Mumbai reporting 6,176 cases. Women continue to be an easy target, with a staggering 4,45,256 cases registered nationwide in 2022, a rise of 4 percent over the previous year. While rape, gang-rape, assault and abduction top the list, around 200 acid attack cases are filed every year.

Acid attacks could be termed the most dastardly crime, carried out viciously on an unsuspecting victim. Almost always, the perpetrator is male, the victim female, and the motive revenge. The reason could range from rejection of advances, property dispute, dowry harassment, domestic abuse, down to plain 'teaching her a lesson'. It leaves the woman scarred for life, physically and psychologically, and she also has to prepare for a long and lonely battle for justice—such a case could languish for five to 10 years and the conviction rate is none too encouraging.

The most crucial issue here is the free availability of acid, both over the counter and online. In 2013, the Supreme Court banned over-the-counter sale of acid and instructed officials to issue acid sale licences to selected retailers; it meant that buyers would have to share their addresses and photo IDs. Yet, an experiment just a couple of years ago by a film crew showed that acid can be bought freely at a local store without any proof of identity. Online sale gives a degree of anonymity, though it does leave a digital trail. In 2013, following the 'Nirbhaya' gang-rape case and Justice Verma committee report, the Union government recognised acid attacks as a separate offence with a minimum punishment of 10 years and maximum of life imprisonment. It is worrying that despite these measures, acid attacks are perpetrated with impunity. Given that this crime is common in neighbouring Pakistan and Bangladesh too, it is a regional malaise. What we need is a concerted effort by the government, law enforcers and civil society to end this heinous crime, starting with a crackdown on the casual sale of acid, followed by stringent punishment.

GRADE INFLATION LOWERS EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS

AN audio clip doing the rounds in Kerala has stirred a much-needed discussion on the quality of school education in the state. In the clip, the director of general education, Shanavas S, can be heard decrying the practice of awarding liberal marks to increase the number of students getting A-plus grades in class 10 exams. He said, "Students who were even incapable of reading or writing properly were apparently awarded A-plus." He also said that marks beyond 50 percent should be awarded purely on the basis of the candidate's merit. Reminding others that there used to be a time when the state's education standards were compared with those of top European countries, the director said Kerala was now bracketed with north Indian states like Bihar.

Barely hours after the audio of this address at a closed-door exam-related workshop became public, the government disowned the remarks. General education minister V Sivankutty clarified that it was not the "government's stand". Meanwhile, the opposition clamoured that the remarks showed the high success rate being projected was just aimed at earning credit for the government. The education minister denied the allegation and sought a detailed report from the director. The controversy has certainly created apprehension regarding the quality of the students passing out of the system. It is true that the number of students getting A-plus grades has sharply increased over the past decade. From a little over 2 percent of all students in 2013, the number of A-plus awardees jumped to around 17 percent in 2023.

If what the director said is correct, it does not augur well for the state's education system or for the students getting those high grades. Grade inflation is not a solution for anything. It will only lead to undeserving students bagging slots in coveted courses, which will eventually lead to a devaluation of the higher education system. It would be ridiculous if the government thinks that pass percentages and the number of A-plus grades are an assessment of the government's performance. The state government must come clean on the matter at the earliest. It is imperative to clear the anxiety over the quality of education offered in the state for the sake of its children's future.

QUICK TAKE

REVAMP DELHI VARSITY COUNCIL

ACADEMIC atmanirbharta got a shiner on its eye on Wednesday when a strategic plan charting Delhi University's course for the next 25 years was found to have been partly plagiarised from similar documents published around the world. When pressed, the university registrar said "only 8 percent" of the 52-page document had been copied. This is happening when all thesis submissions go through plagiarism checks. If those deciding the future of one of the country's largest universities lack vision and integrity, it is not enough to send the document back to them for a fresh draft, as has been done. The academic council itself needs a revamp.

The BJP seems to have its task cut out for the national elections. But the Congress finds the going tough among bitter allies

NDA'S 2024 TASK CLEAR, INDIA BLOC FUMBLES IN THE DARK

RADHIKA RAMASESHAN
Columnist and political commentator

SOUMYADIP SINHA

AS much of a platitude as it is, there is no gainsaying that state elections conducted less than six months before a parliamentary poll are treated as a teaser before the finale. However, this belief does not wash in the prevailing political milieu of India. In December 2018, the BJP lost the assembly polls in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh but bounced back—and how—in those very states in the May 2019 Lok Sabha election. The dynamics changed in every election. What voters endorsed in the state election they repudiated in the parliamentary poll.

The BJP leaves nothing to destiny. Narendra Modi seems to visualise, decree and craft his and his party's kismet, faltering at times, with Amit Shah there to shape and execute the blueprint. The optics of victory captivate the BJP but the parlour and studio chatter is of little consequence. The verdicts are significant for other reasons. For the cadre-driven BJP, it is incumbent on the leaders to keep the corps perpetually motivated and buoyant. In 2018, the perception was the defeat—to the Congress at that—had disheartened the BJP's boys and girls and it would entail Modi's charisma and credibility as well as an emotionally-loaded issue to get them back in action. That happened with the cross-border strikes of April 2019.

The BJP has reconquered the Hindi heartland, leaving the Congress with Himachal Pradesh (which has four Lok Sabha seats) and Bihar (40 seats) and Jharkhand (14 seats) in the region, but as a considerably minor partner in the state coalitions.

It is not as though the BJP does not have its task cut out. It was a given that the north and the west were its fail-safe covers against electoral vagaries. But even though recent history has not failed the party in these regions, Modi seems focused on Maharashtra and Bihar. Maharashtra, which has 48 Lok Sabha seats, the largest after Uttar Pradesh, is in the throes of a churn after the BJP audaciously brought down the Shiv Sena-led coalition with the Nationalist Congress Party and the Congress, split the Sena-NCP alliance, co-opted a bulk of Uddhav Thackeray and Sharad Pawar's parties and installed another dispensation where it not only shares power, but calls the shots.

The experiment was fraught with uncertainty because the breakaway Sena and NCP groups visibly resent sharing power with each other and begrudge the BJP playing the Big Brother. The inflection points will doubtless come when the Lok Sabha seats are parcelled out. The BJP will aim to get the most. Will the allies' displeasure reflect in electioneering or will the BJP's central command paper over the dissensions as it is prone to?

In Bihar, the BJP—which inducted smaller parties founded on caste identities into the NDA bloc, including a splinter group of Ram Vilas Paswan's Lok Janshakti Party—is up against the formidable grouping of the Janata Dal (United) and Rashtriya Janata Dal, comprising the upper crust of backward castes such as the Yadavs and Kurmis as well as economically backward and most backward subcastes. The JD(U)-RJD themed the BJP's reluctance to conduct a national caste census in its campaign. While a caste census might not have worked in the less Mandalised states of MP, Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh, the BJP is wary of its impact in Bihar, the crucible of backward caste empowerment in the north.

The BJP will of course have to double down on its efforts to regain ground in West Bengal, hold on to its pre-eminence in Assam and hope for a breakthrough in Odisha. In the south, its endeavour will essentially revolve around putting the Karnataka defeat behind and going for a kill in the parliamentary polls, capitalise on the vote share increase in Telangana and strike smart alliances in Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh. The BJP has to tie up loose ends and augment its pan-national identity by getting the south and the east on board.

The Congress is out on a limb after its losses in the Hindi belt. At the nub of the Congress's predicament is the plight of its central leadership, whose inadequacies get magnified by every success the BJP posts. Rahul Gandhi has frittered away the goodwill that his Bharat Jodo Yatra earned. In politics, voters are just as benevolent as the last vote polled by a leader. It's doubtless that the Congress's Karnataka victory translated into its Telangana gain, facilitated by hard work and clever strategies. But then the Congress faced a regional party in the southern state and not the BJP. What good then is the claim to be the only pan-national force that can potentially subjugate the BJP? In terms of parliamentary representation, the south's share is far less than that of the north and the west.

As the Congress president M Mallikarjun Kharge convened a meeting of the INDIA bloc on December 6, it was apparent that the non-Congress constituents have girded themselves to tell the Congress a thing or two. On Monday, National Conference leader Omar Abdullah questioned the rationale and relevance of the opposition coalition after the Congress ceded ground to the BJP. Mamata Banerjee seemed uncertain about showing up, while Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav was already riled up after a face-off with Kamal Nath over seat-sharing in MP, which the Congress stubbornly refused. The INDIA coalition was originally intended to share Lok Sabha seats, but given the Congress-SP acrimony, Uttar Pradesh looks futile. In any case, a Congress-SP alliance never worked in the few experiments that were carried out.

Congress sympathisers sagely advised the leaders to revisit the drawing board. Does one exist? In the recent polls, the 'high command' was practically invisible but for sporadic campaigning by Rahul and Priyanka Gandhi. The regional leaders crafted their own style of approaching the elections, which appeared slapdash rather than meticulous. The leaders in MP and Chhattisgarh, for instance, copied the BJP's Hindutva-plus-welfare template with minor tweaks, but can a copycat ever surpass the real McCoy?

The regional parties have limited terrains as local compulsions dictate their strategies; the DMK's rant against sanatan dharma—which cost the Congress in the north—being an example. Its leadership shaky and a large swath of its base hollowed out, the Congress seems in no position to lead INDIA. But are the Gandhis willing to be led?

M KUNJAMAN, A COLOSSUS WHO SHARPENED FOCUS ON THE POOR

LEKHA CHAKRABORTY
Professor, NIPFP, Delhi and governing board member, International Institute of Public Finance, Munich

DR M Kunjaman's journey from his childhood days of poverty and hunger to being an accomplished economist is a story that is impossible for anyone to understand. A wounded child was within him every moment, despite him attaining high positions and receiving awards later in life. He got the first rank in MA economics, becoming the first Dalit student since former President K R Narayanan to achieve this honour.

After completing his higher studies in the Centre for Development Studies affiliated to the Jawaharlal Nehru University and Cochin University of Science and Technology, he joined Kerala University as a faculty member and later the Tata Institute of Social Sciences in Mumbai. At the national level, he served as a member of the University Grants Commission. He was an accomplished writer and authored many books with themes of inequality and social inclusion. His articulation reminds me of the axiom, 'Sell your heart; that's good writing.'

He was an intellectual giant we hardly recognised. Listening to his talks on social inclusion was a great learning—and unlearning—process for his students. His ideas had the smell of fresh air. The clarity of his thought process was unmatchable. Kunjaman warned about the volatility created by social and economic inequalities. His arguments had both equity and efficiency perspectives: he talked about integrating Dalit concerns into macroeconomic policymaking. To put his views in perspective, the Human Development Index (HDI) is highly aggregated and scholars have started realising the fallacy of aggregation, which hardly captures intersectionality issues. There is an increasing recognition of how significant it is to build consistent longitudinal data about Dalits and construct an HDI which integrates the achievements of Dalits across Indian states.

Dissent was his weapon. He was obstinate. He underscored how democratic governance can be threatened by wide disparities in land and income. The tangible manifestation of discrimination is when the State fails to provide adequate social and physical infrastructure to all its citizens equally, he warned. Democracy, per se, cannot ensure dignity. We take democracy and freedom for granted, but he knew with clarity how incredibly vulnerable these can be.

Economists always searched for rigour in the analyses running their economic models. However, Kunjaman was refreshingly different, feeling a sense of alienation from such a genre of economists as he always believed in field experiments and inferences. He believed in 'perspectives of the poor by the poor' to arrive at policy solutions.

EXPRESS

M Kunjaman was the first Dalit student since former President K R Narayanan to top his economics master's course. He changed the way peers and students looked at social inclusion and integrated Dalit concerns into macroeconomic policymaking. He preferred the perspectives of the poor by the poor to arrive at solutions

Kunjaman was apolitical. His intellectual insurgency was always in taking the establishment head-on. Politics can change anytime. Inequality is a violation. It persistently violates ethics and morality. What is legitimate need not always be ethical, he knew. Many at the bottom of the pyramid are not living up to their full potential. Every citizen wants to live 'authentic' in a country. His autobiography Ethiru (Dissent) throws light on his dark childhood. When he was called by his caste name, he asserted, "I have a name. I am Kunjaman."

His intellectual loneliness mounted, reflecting in his recent social media posts. How wonderful it would have been if he travelled more often than he usually did to meet like-minded scholars who believed in economic development the way he had envisioned. We cannot forget his death, as it is a clarion call to take a look at the systems and processes that kept him alienated throughout his life.

To understand him, we need to go into the mindscape of this accomplished economist who did different research—'people mattered' research. Here we can identify the deep scars left by millions of "emotional crimes" performed by the "systems" around him; perhaps he was alone and the sole witness to those invisible crimes. No constitutional provisions or laws are effective to deal with such horrendous emotional crimes when one is his or her sole witness.

As the sole witness, how he treated himself with self worth and the distance he travelled to reach the high positions he adorned is the legacy he left for us, his students. One question keeps haunting me: Why did he leave us abruptly? We failed you, sir.

Maybe in the moments of his accomplishments, his sense of alienation might have been the strongest and he might have felt helpless and rebellious about the larger cause he committed to with all his life. Returning the Kerala Sahitya Akademi award for his book Ethiru was one of the many instances of his integrity in remaining staunchly committed to his cause with the least interest in awards and positions. He will live on.

As his students and public policymakers, how can we carry forward the principles he believed in? Integrating intersectionality issues into public policymaking is necessary but not sufficient. Asking for 'accountability' if the fiscal policies are translated into outcomes in the tribal economy is not enough either. Will this fiscal activism—'follow the money' rebellion—reveal horrendous stories about 'leakages' of money earmarked for tribal economy? I remember a conversation with a friend about working in tribal districts on these 'crony deals' and 'leakages'. My friend warned, "Lekha, you will be killed," and added that such a mafia exists around the world. And I believe we should begin asking such questions. I will not be killed for sure.

Speaker accepts resignation of 9 BJP MPs from LS

President has accepted resignations of three Union ministers from their respective ministries

PARVEZ SULTAN & RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

LOK Sabha Speaker Om Birla accepted the resignations of nine BJP Lok Sabha MPs, including that of Union ministers Narendra Singh Tomar and Prahlad Singh Patel, on Thursday.

Meanwhile, the three Union ministers — Prahlad Singh Patel (MoS for food processing industries and Jal Shakti), Narendra Singh Tomar (agriculture minister) and Renuka Singh (MoS for tribal affairs) — also quit from their respective ministries on Thursday, which were accepted by President Droupadi Murmu.

With this, Union tribal affairs minister Arjun Munda has been given additional charges of agriculture ministry and farmers' welfare. MoS Shobha Karandlaje is now MoS in charge of food processing industries. Union minister Rajeev Chandrasekhar has been given additional charge as MoS for Jal Shakti and Union minister Bharti Pravin Pawar, MoS for tribal affairs.

In a strategic move to better the party's electoral prospects, the BJP had fielded its parliamentarians in the recent assembly elections held in Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh and Telangana. The party had nominated 21 MPs to contest the state elections and 12 of them had managed to secure a win.

Party strategy

In a strategic move to better the BJP's electoral prospects in the four states, it had fielded 21 of its parliamentarians, including Union ministers, in the recent assembly elections.

Twelve BJP MPs elected in these state assemblies had met Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday and tendered their resignations from Parliament, in the presence of the party's national president JP Nadda.

Besides Tomar and Patel, the other MPs who had resigned are Rakesh Singh, Uday Pratap Singh and Riti Pathak from Madhya Pradesh; Diya Kumari, Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore, Kirodi Lal Meena (Rajya Sabha MP) and Mahant Balaknath from Rajasthan, and Renuka Singh, Gomati Sai and Arun Sao from Chhattisgarh.

Lok Sabha on Thursday passed a bill to establish the Sammakka Sarakka Central Tribal University in Telangana. The bill was passed by a voice vote with the House rejecting some amendments moved by Opposition. Education minister Dharmendra Pradhan said if any student's life is lost in any campus "we as a society should be responsible for it".

'HIKE STIPEND OF NON-NET FELLOWS'

Senior Congress leader Shashi Tharoor on Thursday urged the Centre to consider hiking significantly the stipend of non-NET research fellows, asserting that their contributions are pivotal in advancing the country's growth. During the 'zero hour', the MP highlighted the plight of non-NET research fellows in terms of insufficient resources.

LIVE-IN RELATIONS 'DANGEROUS': BJP MP

A BJP MP from Haryana on Thursday termed live-in relationships a "dangerous disease" that needs to be eradicated from society and urged the government to make a law against it. Raising the issue in the Lok Sabha during the 'zero hour', Dharambir Singh also said that divorce rates in love marriages were high and the consent of the parents of the bride and groom should therefore be made mandatory for such alliances.

PM tells BJP leaders: Call me 'Modi', not 'Modi ji'

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

OVERWHELMED by the welcome at the party's parliamentary wing meeting on Thursday following BJP's spectacular victory in three Assembly elections, Prime Minister Narendra Modi humbly told party members to call him "Modi" instead of "Modi ji."

He also cited the poll data for assembly elections over the decades to emphasise that the party has become people's most preferred choice for governance as its record of retaining power is better than the Congress and other parties.

When the PM reached the meeting venue, party members belonging to both Houses gave him a standing ovation. Amid a resounding applause, party chief JP Nadda felicitated him with a shawl and a garland.

The PM said "team spirit and collective strength" should be credited for the party's win in the assembly polls, noting that the party's strength has doubled in Mizoram and grown multifold in Telangana.

"The BJP in the assembly polls has won 55-60 seats from aspirational districts compared to the previous polls when it won 15-18 seats by good governance and delivery of services without resorting to freebies politics," the PM said.

Bidhuri expresses regret for remarks against Danish Ali

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

THE Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) MP Ramesh Bidhuri has expressed regret for his objectionable remarks against BSP parliamentarian Kunwar Danish Ali during a meeting of the Lok Sabha Privileges Committee on Thursday. The committee held separate hearings for both the leaders.

According to sources, Bidhuri, in his deposition before the committee, noted that senior BJP leader and Union Defence Minister Rajnath Singh had already conveyed regret in the House for his comments on September 21. These comments were made during a speech while discussing the success of the Chandrayaan-3 mission.

Bidhuri had hurled racial slurs at Ali, who was accused by several BJP leaders of using derogatory words for Prime Minister Narendra Modi. They claimed that Ali's comments had provoked the BJP lawmaker.

As a row erupted in the House, Singh rose to express his regrets. "I express regret if the opposition is hurt by the remarks made by the member," said the Deputy Leader of the House in Lok Sabha. The incident also generated significant controversy on social media.

With Bidhuri expressing regret, the committee is likely to close the matter and send its report to the Speaker.

BJP president J P Nadda had also issued a show-cause notice to Bidhuri, known for his fiery comments that have sparked controversies in the past. Taking serious note of the comments, Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla warned Bidhuri of "strict action" if such behaviour is repeated in the future.

Ali also wrote to Birla, complaining about the slurs used by Bidhuri against him.

"During his speech, he directed the most foul, abusive invectives against me, which are part of the record of Lok Sabha. Among the words he used against me were Bhadwa (pimp), katwa (circumcised), mullah ugravadi (Muslim terrorist), and atankvadi (terrorist) etc," his letter read.

SC verdict on abrogation of Article 370 on Monday

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court will pronounce the verdict on the long-pending issue of abrogation of Article 370 in Jammu and Kashmir on December 11 as Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul, one of the judges who completely heard the case, is set to retire on December 25.

Moreover, the apex court's winter vacation starts from December 16.

This newspaper spoke to some petitioners and lawyers who expressed hope that the apex court will pass a favourable verdict.

Muzzafar Iqbal Khan, a lawyer also one of the petitioners in the case, said that the decision of the SC was going to be a historical one.

"The question before the Supreme Court would be scope and sweep of Parliament's power under Article 3 of the Constitution to disintegrate a state. This question is going to have a long term repercussions on Indian polity. It is for the first time the Supreme Court will decide this issue, as never before in independent India has a state been reduced to a Union Territory," Khan said.

It is to be noted that an apex court judge who completely hears a case usually delivers the judgment before his or her retirement.

It is also a fact that the SC hasn't delivered a verdict during vacations, whether summer or winter.

Justice Kaul, the second seniormost judge of the Supreme Court, after the Chief Justice of India (CJI) Dr Dhananjaya Yeshwant Chandrachud, is set to retire on December 25, after serving the top court from February 17, 2017 to this date.

The Supreme Court had started the hearing in the case on a day-to-day basis from August 2, 2023, for 16 tumultuous marathon hearings, on a batch of 23 petitions till September 05, 2023.

The petitions challenged the constitutional validity of changes made to Article 370, which gave special status to the erstwhile state of J&K and its reorganisation into Union Territories of J&K and Ladakh.

The five-judge constitution bench of the apex court, headed by the Chief Justice, Dr Chandrachud, and also comprising Justice Kaul, Justices Sanjiv Khanna, B R Gavai and Surya Kant, had reserved its judgment on September 5, 2023.

The Central government had defended its decision before the Supreme Court to abrogate Article 370 &K saying that post the abrogation, street violence, which was engineered and orchestrated by terrorists and secessionist networks has now become a thing of the past.

Plea on internet shutdowns binned

A three-judge bench on Thursday refused to entertain an application seeking enforcement of its earlier 2020 guidelines issued on State-imposed internet shutdowns. On January 10, 2020, SC had said that freedom of speech and conducting business on Internet are protected under the Constitution.

Steps to curb illegal migration sought

The Supreme Court on Thursday sought a detailed report from the Union of India in an affidavit as to how many people have come to India from Bangladesh between 1967 and 1971, and what actions have been taken to create a safer border. The apex court also questioned the Central government on what steps have been taken so far to curb illegal migration into Indian territory, and posted the matter for further hearing till December 12.

Landmark verdict available in 10 languages

CJI DY Chandrachud on Thursday announced that the landmark Keshavananda Bharati judgment of 1973 is now available in 10 Indian regional languages on the Supreme Court website www.sci.gov.in. The CJI said 2023 commemorates 50 years of its historic judgment, which had upheld the basic structure doctrine and placed limits on the power of the Parliament to amend the Constitution.

Shoma Sen's bail plea to be heard next on Jan 10

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday deferred to January 10 the hearing on the bail petition filed by former Nagpur University professor and Bhima Koregaon-accused Shoma Sen.

Sen had moved the Supreme Court seeking immediate interim bail on the grounds of her deteriorating health. The National Investigation Agency, which is the probe agency in the case, opposed the bail on the grounds that her involvement in the crime could not be ruled out.

The Supreme Court bench headed by Justice Aniruddha Bose also said that it would hear the bail plea of another accused, Jyoti Jagtap, who is also allegedly involved in the same case, after January 10, preferably be in the third week of January, and that too on a Wednesday.

1st Indian Art Biennale at Red Fort to begin today

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the first Indian Art, Architecture and Design Biennale (IAADB) 2023 to be held at Red Fort on Friday. During the programme, Modi will also inaugurate Atma Nirbhar Bharat Centre for Design at Red Fort and the student Biennale — Samunnati.

It was the Prime Minister's vision to develop and institutionalise a flagship global cultural initiative in the country like the international biennales at Venice, Sao Paulo, Singapore, Sydney and Sharjah, among others, said the ministry of culture.

"In line with this vision, a nationwide campaign to reinvent, rebrand, renovate and re-house museums was launched. Further, development of cultural spaces in five cities of India namely Kolkata, Delhi, Mumbai, Ahmedabad and Varanasi was also announced. Indian Art, Architecture & Design Biennale (IAADB) will serve as an introduction to the cultural space at Delhi," said ministry officials.

The ministry has selected 150 art works to be displayed at the biennale. For the week-long event, it has invited artists and curators to submit their work for the event.

The student biennale will serve as a platform for emerging talent to showcase creativity and imagination.

"IAADB is designed to initiate a holistic conversation between artists, architects, designers, photographers, collectors, art professionals and the public to strengthen the cultural dialogue. It will also provide avenues and opportunities to expand and collaborate with the creators of art, architecture and design as part of the evolving economy," said an official.

The themes chosen for exhibitions to be held every day are 'Pravesh — Rite of Passage: Doors of India', 'Bagh e bahar: Gardens as Universe: Gardens of India', 'Sampravah: Confluence of Communities: Baolis of India', 'Sthapatya: Anti fragile algorithm: Temples of India', 'Vismaya: Creative Crossover: Architectural Wonders of Independent India', 'Deshaj Bharat Design: Indigenous Designs' and 'Samatva: Shaping the Built: Celebrating Women in Architecture'.

IAADB will include pavillions based on the above themes, panel discussions, art workshops, art bazaar, heritage walks and a parallel student biennale.

IAADB 23 will be a watershed moment for the country in the Biennale landscape, said officials.

"In consonance with PM's vision of 'Vocal for Local', 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat Centre for Design' at Red Fort is being set up. It will showcase the unique and indigenous crafts of India and provide a collaborative space between the artisans and the designers. Paving the way for a sustainable cultural economy, it will empower the artisan communities with new designs and innovations," said the ministry.

Talks in progress with 6 countries to export LCA Tejas, says HAL

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

PUBLIC sector Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) is in talks with six buyer countries to export India's indigenous light combat aircraft Tejas.

"Talks have picked up pace with Argentina, the Philippines and Nigeria," HAL chief managing director CB Anantha krishna said on Thursday. He was talking to the media on the sidelines of the 2-day Avionics Expo 2023 in Delhi.

Besides, countries like Botswana and Egypt have already evinced interest in India's home-grown fighter aircraft project. The HAL recently received a setback after the Malaysian Royal Air Force opted for Korea's F-50 Golden Eagle fighter over LCA Tejas.

On being asked about Argentina's concern over the UK-origin parts being used in the aircraft, the HAL CMD said that "that part will be taken care of." The LCA Tejas has over 15 British components, including Martin Baker ejection seat, about which the Argentinians have flagged their concern.

In line with India's initiatives to increase defence-related exports, the HAL is targeting export sales of ₹25 billion over the next few years. India has been so far one of the biggest importers of defence equipment.

The LCA is a single-engine multi-role fighter aircraft that the Indian Air Force is currently operating in two squadrons. An order worth ₹36,468 crore for the procurement of 83 LCA Mk 1A aircraft was placed in 2021 and the delivery is set to begin by February 2024.

A week back Defence Minister Rajnath Singh-headed Defence Acquisition Council approved a proposal to acquire additional 97 LCA Mk1A fighter aircraft for the IAF.

The HAL is conducting a two-day 'HAL Avionics Expo-2023' in Delhi from Thursday. "It will serve as a hub for professionals, industry leaders and stakeholders from the aviation sector and they will have networking opportunities to establish meaningful connections, foster collaborations and explore potential business partnerships," HAL director (Engineering and R&D) DK Sunil said on Tuesday.

The expo has arranged a display of a comprehensive range of avionics products designed and developed by HAL.

India's defence exports have reached an all-time high of ₹15,920 crore in FY2023. India today exports major platforms like Dornier-228 and 155 mm advanced towed artillery guns.

Fadnavis sees red as Nawab Malik backs Ajit Pawar

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

Maharashtra deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis on Thursday wrote to his alliance partner Ajit Pawar asking him not to induct NCP MLA Nawab Malik in his faction and make him a part of the Mahayuti government, citing serious charges against Malik.

The controversy erupted after Malik, out on medical bail, attended the first day of the winter session of the state assembly sitting in the treasury benches. The BJP had earlier made serious allegations against Malik linking his property deal with D-company.

Malik was arrested on February 23 by the Enforcement Directorate under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) in a probe linked to the activities of fugitive gangster Dawood Ibrahim and his aides. "Power comes and goes, but they will not compromise with national security," Fadnavis' letter said, adding he opposed the induction of Malik in the Ajit Pawar-led NCP factions and the ruling Mahayuti government.

"Today, Malik participated in the functioning of the state assembly. As an MLA, it is his right. However, I wish to clarify that we do not have any personal enmity against him," said Fadnavis' letter. "But the way the allegations are made against him, it is not appropriate to take Malik in the Mahayuti government," the letter added.

"We want to clarify that unless Malik proves his innocence, he should not be made a part of Mahayuti. However, it is your sole right to take him or not in your party. Besides, the alliance partner should not take any step that can hurt the Mahayuti," Fadnavis said.

Nawab Malik refused to speak about the Fadnavis' letter, saying as per his bail order, he was allowed to speak with the media. However, Ajit Pawar said Malik is a senior politician and that he didn't need anyone's advice where to sit in the Assembly.

Post-poll, resort politics back in Raj

Ex-CM Vasundhara Raje in Delhi -- buzz in Jaipur that her son has kept 5 MLAs at a resort

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

ANXIETY continues to grip the Rajasthan BJP over the party's chief ministerial candidate four days after the party's triumph in the Assembly polls. On Wednesday night, former CM Vasundhara Raje was reportedly summoned to Delhi to meet the party's top leaders.

Adding to the confusion was a controversy that erupted when the father of BJP MLA Lalit Meena alleged that Dushyant Singh, Raje's son and Jhalawar MP, forcibly detained his son at a resort outside Jaipur. This triggered a sensation within the BJP circles in the state capital.

Ex-MLA Hemraj Meena, father of Kishanganj MLA Lalit Meena, has accused Raje's son of orchestrating the stay of MLAs in a hotel. Hemraj alleges that Dushyant prevented Lalit from returning home and restricted his movements at a resort.

The incident prompted Hemraj to alert state party chief CP Joshi and organization general secretary Chandrashekhar. Despite their intervention, Anta MLA Kanwarlal Meena allegedly obstructed efforts to bring Lalit back, insisting on consultation with Dushyant Singh.

Meena said, "They forced themselves on us, leading to Lalit's eventual retrieval. The presence of 5-6 BJP MLAs in a hotel on Sikar Road raised suspicions among party members, with concerns about lobbying."

BJP MLA Lalit Meena sensed a potential ploy to coerce him into joining a particular faction. He reported his concerns to his father and party organization, resulting in leaders extracting him from the hotel.

However Kanwarlal Meena refuted the allegations made by Hemraj Meena, father of MLA Lalit Meena as a conspiracy to defame Jhalawar MP Dushyant Singh.

Meanwhile, state BJP chief CP Joshi has also dismissed any reports of internal restrictions within the party, emphasizing the party's commitment to internal democracy.

Despite the denials, uncertainty looms over the selection of the new CM, with several senior BJP leaders being considered for the role.

The speculation suggests that a surprise choice, potentially from the central team, could emerge. Meanwhile, amid the suspense, internal upheaval seems imminent following the resignation of several MPs turned MLAs, including Mahant Balaknath.

"After winning, MLA Lalit Meena along with other MLAs from Jhalawar-Baran Lok Sabha went to the RSS and BJP office in Baran then came to Jaipur and stayed in a hotel together with mutual consent. It is mischievous to say something like fencing in MLAs. Can any MLA be taken forcibly without his consent?" asked Meena.

"That day first 30-35 people came to our hotel and wanted to take MLA Lalit Meena with them but due to lack of familiarity, we did not send Lalit with him. Later, when his father Hemraj came, we sent Lalit with his father. MP Dushyant Singh's presence can be seen in the Lok Sabha that day and his location can also be traced through mobile phone. I did not talk to the MP during this period. Taking the MLA away at night and accusing Dushyant Singh is a conspiracy," Meena asserted.

Former CM Vasundhara Raje's reported meetings with party president JP Nadda and other senior party leaders added further intrigue to the unfolding political drama.

However, Raje clarified during her journey from Jaipur to Delhi that she was heading to meet her daughter-in-law, leaving the question of her political role unanswered

WHEN MLAs ARE KEPT AWAY

Parties usually collect MLAs at a venue under the leadership of a loyal member, and it is ensured that none of them is poached. Recent instances

In run-up to 2022 RS polls, surveillance on MLAs in Rajasthan was stepped up. MLAs, ministers of Congress and BJP were packed into luxurious resorts in Udaipur and Jaipur

In 2022, Shiv Sena Chief Minister in Maharashtra Shinde fled to Guwahati with around 45 MLAs, thereby weakening the MVA coalition in the state

2020: Drama unfolds outside the ITC luxury resort Grand Bharat in Mewat near Manesar as Rajasthan cops land at the resort to reportedly quiz Sachin Pilot camp's MLAs

Can any MLA be taken forcibly without his consent? Impossible. And Dushyant Singh is the MP of Jhalawar- Baran. Who will hole up the MLAs of his own Lok Sabha constituency?

Mumbai BJP chief transforms self

The president of the Mumbai BJP unit, 51-year-old Ashish Shelar, was typically seen in his usual attire of blue jeans and a white shirt. However, there was a notable change when the Mumbai BJP MLA appeared for the first time in a khadi shirt, jacket, and trousers. Shelar mentioned that he would continue wearing the khadi shirt and jacket as per the request of his party leader and Home Minister Amit Shah. There is speculation about whether this change in attire signifies Shelar's preparation for a key political role or is simply a part of shedding youthful style and transforming into a mature politician.

Shinde faction MLAs still looking for cabinet posts

Shiv Sena MLAs Bharat Gogawale and Sanjay Shirsat, under the leadership of Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde, missed their first swearing-in ceremony for the Shinde government. Since then, they have been making efforts to be sworn in as ministers during the cabinet expansion, but success seems elusive. The demand for a ministry by Gogawale and Shirsat is considered a joke in political and media circles. Gogawale has even stopped complaining about the ministry, with some making jokes about their new blazer getting old as they wait to be sworn in as ministers.

Shinde faction gets old, larger Shiv Sena office

Power dynamics come into play in securing larger and more crucial offices during the winter sessions of the Maharashtra State Assembly in Nagpur. Factions within both parties are gaining more prominence than the original political party. The Shiv Sena, led by Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde, has been allocated a larger space at the original Shiv Sena location, while the faction led by Uddhav Thackeray has been given a smaller space at different locations. A similar situation exists for the NCP, with Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar's faction being assigned an old NCP office in the assembly premises while NCP chief Sharad Pawar 's was given smaller spaces.

Raids were conducted at Boudh Distilleries Private Limited (BDPL) in Odisha and Jharkhand on Thursday. Dheeraj Sahu, a resident of Lohardaga in Jharkhand, is an old Congress leader who began his political career as a student leader in 1977.

Chandrasekhar: Digital economy to contribute 20% to India's GDP by '26

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

RAJEEV Chandrasekhar, Union Minister for Skill Development and Entrepreneurship and Electronics and Information Technology, stated on Thursday that the digital economy will contribute 20% of India's GDP by 2026. He was speaking at the inaugural function of the Gujarat government's 'Startup Conclave 2023' at Gujarat's Gandhinagar helipad ground.

"In 2014, the digital economy accounted for about 4.5 percent of GDP; today, it accounts for 11%. By 2026, the digital economy will account for 20%, or one-fifth, of Indian GDP," Chandrasekhar predicted.

According to him, PM Narendra Modi's targets and ambitions when he launched the "Digital India" program in 2015 transformed "qualitatively as well as quantitatively our economy, our innovation ecosystem, and our position as a nation in the world."

He pointed out that India's position has shifted from being a consumer of technology for nearly three decades to being a producer of devices, products, and platforms for the rest of the world.

"There has been a remarkable transformation over the last nine years under the PM." Our economy, which was once dominated by a few groups or segments, has now become highly diversified," the minister said.

He claimed that India has now become the world's fastest-growing digital economy.

Praising Modi's vision, he said, "We are living in the most exciting period in independent India's history. This is the most exciting time in India's innovation and technology sector. Look how far our innovation ecosystem and digital economy have grown since Modi took office in 2014."

Centre sends team again as Mamata, govt in war of words over state's dues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kolkata

AFTER West Bengal chief minister Mamata Banerjee accused the Centre of not clearing the state's dues and constantly sending central teams, Union minister Giriraj Singh suggested chief minister Mamata Banerjee should meet the Prime Minister to place her demand. The Union ministry of rural development department, in repsonse, has decided to send teams again to inquire into complaints related to the execution of rural employment and housing schemes for which the release of funds was stopped by the central government in the past one year citing irregularities.

Sources in the state panchayat department said the teams would visit districts in north and south Bengal. "The teams will directly send reports to the ministry of rural development department by December," said an official of the state government.

Hitting out at the BJP on Wednesday, on her way to north Bengal, Mamata said the Centre already sent 107 teams in the recent past to inquire the execution of the schemes funded by the Union government.

The teams will visit districts like North 24 Parganas, South 24 Parganas, East Burdwan, Cooch Behar, Purulia, Howrah and Hooghly, Purulia, North Dinajpur, South Dinajpur and Jalpaiguri.

"We are not sure what kind of complaints the ministry received about the schemes, when they could not be implemented over the past one year because of non-release of funds. This visit by the central team has surprised us," said a government official.

Insiders in the Tribamool Congress said the decision of sending the central teams indicated that the BJP is under tremendous pressure in Bengal.

650 kg ghee on bullock carts for Ayodhya temple

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

WITH the preparations for the consecration ceremony of Lord Ram's idol in child form in the Ram temple in Ayodhya going on at war footing, 6.5 quintal (650kg) ghee has been brought to the town from Rajasthan. It is to perform first 'Aarti' of the idol after its consecration in 'sanctum sanctorum' on January 22, next year.

Meanwhile, the makeshift temple where the 'Ram Vigrah' is enthroned presently, will be closed for general public for two days – January 20 and 21—during the consecration rituals.

Interestingly, the ghee, which left Jodhpur on November 27 to reach the temple town on Thursday morning covering a distance of about 1200 km, has been brought neither by a bus nor by train, it has rather been ferried through the five bullock carts each guarded by a dozen 'sevadaars'.

It took 10 days for the bullock carts to cover the distance from Jodhpur crossing Pali, Byavar, Ajmer, Jaipur, Bharatpur, Mathura and Lucknow, to reach Ayodhya where Shree Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust general secretary Champat Rai and a trust member Dr Anil Mishra received it. Moreover, 108 'Shivlingas' have also been brought along with the ghee. On the other, 'soil' from Thailand and 'turmeric' from Cambodia – both to be used in Puja-- also reached Ayodhya on Thursday morning.

According to temple trust general secretary Champat Rai, the ghee brought to Ayodhya from Jodhpur is special as it has been extracted from the milk of those cows which were saved from being slaughtered in Jodhpur in 2014. "All those cows were reared and exposed to the 'paathh' of epic Ramcharitmanas for nine months and then their milk was used to make ghee to be used for the Aarti of Lord Ram," said Rai.

As per the sources, 650 kg ghee was prepared at Shree Shree Maharishi Sandeepan Ram Dharma Gaushala (cow shelter) in Banad of Jodhpur. The sources claimed that 20 years ago, Maharishi Sandeepan had resolved to send ghee for the Aarti of Ram Lala whenever his temple would be built in Ayodhya.

The sources said that on each bullock cart Rs 3.5 lakh was spent incurring a total expenditure of Rs 17.5 lakh in the transportation of ghee from Rajasthan to UP.

Meanwhile, the soil brought from Thaliland to Ayodhya was handed over to Champat Rai by temple trust treasurer Maharaj Govind Dev Giri on Thursday. Sharing a post on X, Rai said that like Ayodhya, the land of Lord Ram, another Ayodhya existed in Thailand known as 'Ayuthaya' from where the soil was brought to be used in Puja.

Sharing more details, Rai said that Lord Ram would be consecrated in the 'garbh griha' (Sanctum Sanctorum) of the temple as a five-year-old child. "Three idols depicting Lord Ram in his child from are being sculpted by the one stone from Rajasthan and two from Karnataka.

"The idols are 90 per cent ready and are being given the final touches. Of the three, the most attractive one would be chosen to be consecrated on January 22," added Rai.

UN CHIEF INVOKES RARELY-USED POWER OVER GAZA

NEW YORK

UN chief Antonio Guterres has invoked a rarely-used article in the United Nations Charter to appeal to the Security Council for a humanitarian ceasefire in the Israel-Hamas conflict and to avert a "humanitarian catastrophe", which he said has "potentially irreversible implications" for Palestinians and peace.

Secretary-General Guterres issued a letter on Wednesday to the President of the Security Council for the month of December, Ambassador Jose Javier De La Gasca Lopez Dominguez, the Permanent Representative of Ecuador to the UN, writing under Article 99 of the UN Charter.

Article 99 was last specifically mentioned in a report on December 3, 1971 by then Secretary-General U Thant on the situation in East Pakistan — now Bangladesh. India had emerged victorious against Pakistan in the 1971 war, which led to the creation of Bangladesh. This is the first time that Guterres has invoked Article 99 of the Charter since he became UN Secretary-General in 2017. Article 99 states that "the Secretary-General may bring to the attention of the Security Council any matter which in his opinion may threaten the maintenance of international peace and security."

In the letter, Guterres said that more than eight weeks of hostilities in Gaza and Israel have created "appalling human suffering, physical destruction and collective trauma across Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territory." Guterres urged members of the Security Council to press to avert a humanitarian catastrophe and appealed for a humanitarian ceasefire to be declared.

We are facing a severe risk of collapse of the humanitarian system. The situation is fast deteriorating into a catastrophe with potentially irreversible implications for Palestinians as a whole and for peace and security in the region. Such an outcome must be avoided at all costs,' Guterres said.

Cos offer discounts to push car sales

Maruti offers up to ₹2.3L discount on SUV Jimny, M&M cuts price up to ₹4.2L on XUV 400

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

IT is raining discounts in the passenger vehicle (PV) market as carmakers are going extra mile to push sales amid fall in demand after the festive heavy month of November and finish their year-end inventory at dealer showrooms, which according to some estimates are at 'alarming level'.

Dealer association body Fada on Wednesday said PV sector shows potential for growth with year-end offers and discounts expected to stimulate sales, along with an improved vehicle supply and new product launches. However, the market faces hurdles in terms of a preference for 2024 manufactured vehicles and a notable slowdown in demand and bookings post-festivities.

"Current PV inventory, still above 60 days, underscores the need for OEMs to reduce dispatches of slow-moving vehicles, especially in entry-level category," added Fada, India's largest carmaker Maruti Suzuki is offering one of the biggest discounts of this season on its recently launched SUV Jimny. The carmaker has cut prices by up to ₹2 lakh on the SUV and has introduced the 'Thunder Edition' at ₹10.74 lakhs in order to push sales of the highly capable 4x4 model. As per dealer showrooms, one can avail a discount of up to ₹2.3 lakh for the entry-level Jimny Zeta.

Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations of India

Popular model Fronx is being sold at a discount of up to ₹40,000 on some variants. Maruti is giving benefits of about ₹25,000 on Grand Vitara SUV. On its Arena showrooms, MSIL is offering offers of ₹40,000-₹70,000 on small cars such as Alto K10, S Presso, Wagon and Celerio. The total benefits vary from model to model.

Shashank Srivastava, senior executive director, sales and marketing, Maruti Suzuki, had recently said while the inventory levels are between 30-35 days, it is expected to come down by December-end, due to aggressive schemes offered by manufacturers.

Country's second largest carmaker Hyundai (HMIL) is also showering with discounts. As per information available, the Korean carmaker is giving discounts of up to ₹1.5 lakh on its lineup. While the discount varies from ₹25,000-₹50,000 for model such as Grand i10 Nios, Verna, Aura, and Alcazar, one can get a benefit of ₹1.5 lakh on the Tucson SUV. SUV major Mahindra & Mahindra is offering a huge discount of up to ₹4.2 lakh on the XUV 400 electric vehicle SUV. The out-going Mahindra XUV300 SUV on the other hand has been discounted by up to ₹1.8 lakh on the top-end variant.

Money laundering case: ED charge sheet against Vivo

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate (ED) has filed its first charge sheet in connection with the ongoing money laundering case against Chinese smartphone manufacturer Vivo and several others including Lava International managing director Hari Om Rai.

As per the reports, the complaint was lodged on Wednesday in a special court, invoking the criminal sections of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). Vivo-India has been identified as an accused alongside individuals previously apprehended in connection with the case.

The four people arrested in the case are mobile company Lava's Hari Om Rai, Chinese national Guangwen (also known as Andrew Kuang), and Chartered Accountants Nitin Garg and Rajan Malik.

It remitted ₹62,476 crore, nearly 50% of the turnover out of India, mainly to China. The remittances were made in order to disclose huge losses in Indian incorporated companies to avoid taxes payment in India, said ED in its statement earlier.

The agency conducted raids on Vivo-India and its affiliated individuals in July of the preceding year, exposing what it claimed to be a significant money laundering network involving Chinese nationals and various Indian companies.

ED conducted raids in over 48 locations last year including Vivo premises and its 23 associated firms such as Grand Prospect International Communication Pvt Ltd (GPICPL).

In a recent court statement, Hari Om Rai said his association with Vivo and its representatives ceased in 2014, refuting any connection to the alleged proceeds of crime.

Vivo Mobiles India was incorporated in 2014 as a subsidiary of Multi Accord, a Hong Kong-based company. GPICPL was incorporated by Zhengshen Ou, Bin Lou and Zhang Jie with the help of one Nitin Garg, CA. As per ED, Bin Lou left India in 2018. Zhengshen Ou and Zhang Jie left India in 2021.

The probe agency said Bin Lou was also an ex-director of Vivo. He had incorporated multiple firms across the country in various states, a total of 18 companies around the same time, just after the incorporation of Vivo in the year 2014-15 and further another Chinese National Zhixin Wei had incorporated further 4 companies.

Paytm stocks fall 20% after decision to cut down small-ticket loans

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

AFTER Paytm announced that it is scaling back small-ticket loans and restructuring its BNPL (buy now, pay later) business, shares of the company declined 20% on Thursday, and this is the largest drop since its listing.

Shares of One 97 Communications, parent company of Paytm, closed at ₹660.70, down ₹152.35 on Thursday. The company on Wednesday said it is recalibrating the portfolio origination of less than ₹50,000 on the back of recent macro development and regulatory guidance. Under ₹50,000 is the postpaid loan product of the company, and it will now be a smaller part of its loan distribution business.

"Paytm's strategy to move away from small ticket size BNPL loans will affect the total loan originations via the platform as the segment forms over 50% of total disbursements," said Motilal Oswal Financial Services in its report.

"Paytm believes that its sourcing funnel will be largely unaffected, as credit-worthy customers will be able to use the postpaid services. Take rates are expected to be marginally affected as BNPL as a product has lower take rates; however, a pick-up in higher ticket size personal loans should offset the overall impact," Motilal Oswal said.

While the longevity of these measures and the outlook in low-ticket unsecured loans remains under watch, we trim FY24/FY25 disbursement estimates by 15%-18%, reflecting the current developments, it added.

Several brokerages including Goldman Sachs, Jefferies and Morgan Stanley either downgraded Paytm stocks or cut their target price. Goldman downgraded Paytm to neutral and cut the 12-month target price to ₹840. Jefferies cut to ₹1,050 from ₹1,300. Bernstein cut target to ₹950 from ₹1,100. Total value of loans disbursed by the company at the end of the second quarter stood at ₹16,211 crore.

It indicated the monthly postpaid loan sourcing run rate to moderate by 50% from ₹3,000 crore to ₹1,500 crore. As a result, the total disbursement run rate is expected to decline to about ₹4,500 crore per month from about ₹6,000 crore per month.

It was suggested that training sessions may be organised for chief vigilance offices or other officials involved in credit decisions' to avoid common lapses that lead to probe.

The meeting also laid stress on the use of digital technology in sharing of documents needed for investigation with CBI.

Economy grew at fastest rate in Q2FY24: FM

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

FINANCE Minister Nirmala Sitharaman has said that India emerged as the fastest-growing economy in the world during the second quarter when many other large economies contracted.

While addressing the winter session of Parliament on Thursday, the finance minister emphasized the substantial progress made by the Indian economy under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, noting that India's economy has risen from the tenth largest in 2014 to the fifth largest economy in 2023.

The minister further revealed that India recorded a significant growth rate of 7.6 percent in the July-September quarter, surpassing all other countries.

"During the July-September quarter, the third and fourth largest economies of the world contracted. Germany contracted by 0.4% and Japan contracted by 2.1%. Other emerging economies like Vietnam grew by 5.3%, Malaysia by 3.3% and Thailand by only 1.5%," Sitharaman said while reiterating that India's 7.6% growth in the second quarter is quite a significant number.

The minister said the manufacturing sector is significantly contributing to the economy because of government's "Make in India" initiative and various production-linked incentive (PLI) schemes. She highlighted that the manufacturing sector witnessed its highest growth of 13.9% in Q2FY24.

She also drew attention to the Purchasing Managers Index (PMI), which registered 56 in November and has been in expansionary growth trajectory

Sitharaman highlighted progress in tax collection, noting a growth rate of 21.82% in direct tax collection during the year. Monthly GST collections stabilised at ₹1.6 trillion, signaling positive economic growth, she said.

for more than 29 consecutive months. She said even the developed economies including the USA are showing contractionary PMI numbers.

"For the USA, it is 50 in October and 49.4 in November, for Canada, 48.6 and 47.7... Even the Eurozone collectively (was at) 43.1, 44.3, and China 50.7 and 49.5," Sitaraman stated

Addressing concerns regarding global demand slowdown, the finance minister revealed that India's exports continued to demonstrate resilience with a year-on-year growth of 9.43 percent in October 2023, amounting to $62.26 billion.

Sitharaman further emphasised that despite Western economies experiencing a decline in consumption and demand, India's exports remained robust. Furthermore, India exceeded expectations by recording a 6.21% rise in merchandise trade, while the World Trade Organization (WTO) had predicted a mere 0.8% growth.

Sitharaman also highlighted significant progress in tax collection, noting a growth rate of 21.82% in direct tax collection during the current year. Additionally, monthly goods and services tax (GST) collections stabilised at ₹1.6 trillion, signaling positive economic growth.

For the US, it is 50 in Oct and 49.4 in Nov, for Canada, 48.6 and 47.7... Even the Eurozone collectively (was at) 43.1, 44.3, and China 50.7 and 49.5

EU's decision to impose carbon tax not at all moral: FM

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FINANCE Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Thursday said that the European Union's decision to impose carbon tax is not only 'not at all moral' but also goes against the developing countries.

The finance minister termed the EU's move to impose Cross-border Adjustment Mechanism (CBAM) or carbon tax as a mono-sided decision.

"I want to make my industry green so I will impose on you a certain tax because you are coming up with non-green products and with that money I will make my industry green," the finance minister said while speaking at the CII Global Economic Forum 2023 in New Delhi on Thursday.

She said that every country will have to have resources generated to meet with demands so that we are better adjusted to the green commitments we have made globally. "But cross border imposition and that money going towards somebody else's green agenda, if anything, is not moral at all," said the FM.

The comments by the minister assume significance on the backdrop of EU's decision to impose carbon tax on imports of cement, iron and steel, aluminium, fertilizers, electricity and hydrogen from 1 January 2026. The carbon tax is supposedly imposed to encourage industries to adopt sustainable and green technologies. The EU will also start charging CBAM tax from shipping companies from 1 January 2027.

Demarcation of non-processing areas in IT SEZs

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE government has amended the Special Economic Zone (SEZ) Rules to permit the demarcation of a portion of the built-up area in an IT/ITES (Information Technology/Information Technology Enabled Services) SEZ as a non-processing area.

The decision was announced through a notification issued by the Commerce and Industry Ministry on December 6.

"A non-processing area may be used for setting up and operation of businesses engaged in IT/ITES, and at such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Board of Approval," the notification stated.

However, repayment of tax concessions associated with the non-processing area will be required. The repayment of tax benefits will be determined by calculating the benefits provided for the processing area of the SEZ.

Officials seek maximum doping ban for Pogba

Anti-doping prosecutors in Italy requested a maximum four-year ban for Juventus midfielder Paul Pogba on Thursday after the World Cup winner tested positive for testosterone. Pogba opted not to make a plea bargain with Italy's anti-doping agency, meaning the case will be tried before the country's anti-doping court.

With the focus shifting to the shortest format, India have a few issues to address before the T20 WC in June

THE QUESTIONS THAT NEED ANSWERS

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

DEATH, taxes and an ICC event round the corner. The unforgiving nature of the international calendar means the next World Cup, the one in the shortest format, is less than eight months away. One would assume that India begin that tournament as one of the favourites. That assumption, though, is wrong. If there's a format where this Indian team has been found wanting, it's in T20 cricket. It may be slightly ironical considering the country plays host to the biggest and, arguably, the best T20 franchise league in the world. But some of the issues that have plagued the side has nothing do with the Indian Premier League. In fact, most of the problems have been long-standing. A look at some of them...

6 No of T20Is India have before the World Cup begins (as per FTP)

INDIA'S REMAINING T20 BILATERALS BEFORE THE WORLD CUP

- Three against South Africa
- Three against Afghanistan

Conservative, take the game deep approach

A sort of legacy that India have failed to shake itself of years after they first exhibited this. The Indian top-order have historically liked to get their eye in before using the back-end to explode. It has often led to losses at the World Cup, most famously in the 2016 semifinals against West Indies (Ajinkya Rahane made a 35-ball 40, for instance). In recent defeats to Pakistan (2021), England (2022 semifinals), that same approach cost them big time. Teams have shown that there can be no place for multiple anchors in the top-order. Will India be ready to embrace it?

Team structure

At the last two T20 World Cups, India had two anchors (three if you want to include Rohit) as their Nos. 1, 2 and 3. Even as other teams had embraced a more modern approach, India were rooted to an outdated approach that depended on at least one of them going big at the death. Modern T20 is all about being proactive. This approach is highly unsustainable these days and it showed. Kohli guided India home against Pakistan but it was a one-off. Rohit has shown an inclination to be a powerplay basher but will they go away from them?

The Rahul question

KL Rahul is very much part of the leadership group and he can go from the first ball. But he is also someone who likes to consume a few balls up front. If Rishabh Pant is back in the scheme of things and is at his optimum best, he will likely don the gloves. If he's not fit, will India be empowered to field Jitesh Sharma?

Batting all-rounder

Andre Russell. Carlos Brathwaite. Daren Sammy. Glenn Maxwell. Mitchell Marsh. Marcus Stoinis. Ben Stokes. Moeen Ali. Liam Livingstone. Sam Curran... all high-grade all-rounders capable of scoring quick runs and chipping in with one or two overs at a minimum every single game. It's not a surprise that these players are worth their weight in gold in this format. These multi-skilled players have all had a hand in the success of their nations since 2016. India, currently, do not have many all-rounders. Save for Hardik Pandya there's nobody who bats in the top six apart from bowling a couple of overs every single game. There in lies their problem. India's primary batters don't bowl and their primary bowlers don't bat.

The depth

Most of India's T20 problems have largely been as a result of the way they approach the game in the powerplay. Some of that approach, though, has been informed by a lack of batting depth. They have largely played four frontline bowlers in the past (R Ashwin batted at No. 8 against England in 2022). This cascading effect has sort of led to watchful starts (Sam Curran and Chris Woakes were England's Nos. 8 and 9 in Australia) in the marquee events. Because none of India's top-order batters bowl, they are forced to do this.

Shreyanka has arrived & is here to stay

GOMESH S @ Chennai

IF one walks into the NICE Cricket Arena at Huttanahalli on a breezy Bengaluru day in June, the jersey no 31 is impossible to miss. Wearing the academy's pink jersey with the number on her back, Shreyanka Patil, more often than not, would be on the top of her mark in one of the open nets.

While the right leg is rooted to the ground, her left foot is perpendicular to the surface before she gently kisses it with her toes and then goes into her run-up and lets the ball rip with her fingers. It would be spot bowling, match scenarios, depending on what she and her coach Arjun Dev had planned the previous night. It would continue for a while before moving towards fielding and batting sessions till 6.30-7 in the evening with a short break in between for lunch.

Her day starts at the rented house near the academy — to which she shifted, leaving behind the home in the city where her family lives — early in the morning with her hitting the gym and ends with cooking dinner and crashing after planning the next day's training. That has been the 21-year-old's routine from the day she had moved near the academy to focus on her cricket and work with Arjun. She had trained her mind to this tiring, and to an extent boring, routine with one dream in mind — to wear the blue jersey and play for India.

On Wednesday, that dream came true at the Wankhede Stadium. The figures — 2/44 — and the result — England beat India by 38 runs — did not go the way Shreyanka and India would have wanted, but she had her moments that would stay with her for the rest of the life.

In a year where the Karnataka all-rounder has scaled several new peaks for herself, from the Women's Premier League to India emerging team call-up to making her debut for the country, Wednesday probably was the icing on the cake. And through 2023, she has established herself as an out-and-out athlete on and off the field, someone who owns the limelight, belongs at that level, has the clarity of her role and handles the media like a pro. For someone who picked up the ball for fun at the age of 10 in her dad Rajesh Patil's academy, there isn't a thing that Shreyanka hasn't tried. Her hunger and drive have been the same since the moment she decided cricket was going to be her first priority in life when she was playing U-16 for the state. "When someone does something well, you want to do more of it. I used to eat and drink cricket like how people say. I just couldn't get it out of my head. Cricket was just there for me, no matter what, I used to play cricket. Somewhere, I realised that this is where I belong and no matter what, I am not giving up," she had told this daily recently.

Even then, she used to take an auto and go to the Chinnaswamy Stadium at five in the morning all by herself. And she knew it was something she had to do all by herself for a long time. That her parents were aware she isn't afraid of anything and can handle herself meant Shreyanka had all the freedom to pursue what she loved. Which is why, once she started training with Arjun, it became a no-brainer for her to shift to a rented house and live alone rather than spending several hours on travel every day. "The love I have towards this game, it is not just talent, it is also hard work. I was like 'no matter what the requirement is, I will do it'. Because practice is something you cannot avoid. For me, practicing for 6 hours a day helps. Maybe for another person, just two hours is enough. But I cannot travel two hours and go back, I am going to waste 3-4 hours, this is one of the best decisions in my life," she says.

The other key factor that has helped Shreyanka through her journey is the people she has around her. From her house owner, who knows her mood and is kind to her, to Arjun who has been with her every step of the way over the past few years, Shreyanka, admittedly, is "blessed" to have such people. "Basically, Arjun is like my another dad. I am very lucky to have two dads, one is Rajesh Patil, one is Arjun Dev. I am very grateful to have him as a coach," says Shreyanka.

Does this constant training and practice get to her at all? It seems it does, at times, during the off-season. However, Shreyanka just can't help it. She would go into the night saying 'I just want to chill for two days' but the next day she would find herself at the gym the first thing in the morning. She says that she has been training her mind so that it does not happen. "I am training now so that in the next couple of years I stick to the preparation. Not many will be in a situation where someone loves to do their job and they are doing it. Parents are very proud of me and I am grateful that I have got this opportunity. I am doing what I love, this itself is a good thing for a person," says Shreyanka.

Indeed, what more an athlete would want than representing the country in the sport they love. This is just the beginning though. The pink headband, left foot perpendicular to the surface at the top of the mark before bowling a classic off-break to castle the stumps in blue jersey is something the sport is going to see a lot more of. For Shreyanka Patil has arrived at the stage where she belongs, and she is here to stay.

With father as coach, Swastik eyes IPL berth

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

HAILING from a family of athletes where his grandfather was a sprinter, his father was a shot putter, Surender Chhikara, who himself was a long-distance runner, always wanted his children to pursue sports. However, little did he know to achieve that he not only had to turn into a cricket coach but also develop 12 wickets on his field to make sure his son, Swastik, became a cricketer. As he fittingly said while talking to this daily, necessity is the mother of invention, Surender ended up with a cricket academy named SS Nalanda Cricket Hostel in Ghaziabad that now houses 13 kids trying to make their careers in cricket.

Swastik made his debut for Uttar Pradesh, slamming a century on his Vijaya Hazare debut last month. Before that, the 18-year-old hogged the limelight in the UP T20 League slamming three centuries and two half-tons. The right-hand batter also appeared in trials for Mumbai Indians, Kolkata Knight Riders and Rajasthan Royals. Given his exploits in the UP T20 League, his father is optimistic about him finding a buyer during the mini-auction scheduled on December 19.

It started in 2008 when Surender, who did NIS diploma in coaching course, saw Swastik's inclination towards cricket. Before him, nobody in the family was a cricketer. "While doing the NIS coaching course, I realised the climate in our country coupled with a few other factors meant it was difficult to produce world-class runners. So I wanted Swastik to choose his sport. He made my life easy as he never demanded any toy apart from a cricket bat," Surender, whose forefathers hail from Jhajjar district (Haryana), told this daily.

Nonetheless, life was not easy thereafter as finding a dedicated coach for Swastik turned out to be an uphill task. "My wife Sudha used to take him to a cricket academy in Ghaziabad. It was around 16km from our home in Muradnagar. But the coach there was doing nothing except asking trainees to run and pick the balls. We tried at a few more academies but in vain. Then I decided to train Swastik."

The first thing Surender did was to build a turf wicket with nets enclosing it from three directions on his 2.60-acre field. "I requested former India spinner Maninder Singh to inaugurate it. To my amazement, the next day when I visited the field, the nets and poles were missing."

Gradually, Surender understood he could not keep up the work as he was an athletics coach. "Initially it was good but as Swastik started developing as a cricketer, I needed to introduce variations. There was no other bowler there as we were training alone. I could not bowl inswing and outswing so I decided to develop a wicket tilted by 2 feet from one end to swing the ball."

UP batter Swastik Chhikara

NUMBERS GAME

117 off 101 balls Swastik made on his senior UP debut in Vijay Hazare Trophy against Himachal

494 runs he scored at an average of 70.57 and a strike rate of 173.33 from 9 innings in UP T20 League

3 centuries he scored in the league playing for Meerut Mavericks

Soon enough, he got to know that the wicket would be of no use during monsoon. "Then I developed a cemented surface and had another one ready with shed on it to ensure my son continues to practice even when it rains." The father hit another roadblock when Swastik started longing for pace bowling. "I can bowl but the pace was not there. To make up for it, I bought a bowling machine in 2015. In the meantime, I continued developing more wickets to suit to different demands. Now the place has 12 practice wickets."

Surender, a sub-inspector, is an instructor with the Delhi police. He imparts training to newly recruited cops on weapons, martial arts and other skills. It was not easy to juggle between the two jobs as the Delhi Police Training Institute in Wazirabad is about 30km from his home. "My job profile means I have to reach the institute by 4 am to impart training from 5 to 8. I have to go there again in the evening to hold the parade for one hour. I used to travel at least 120km per day to make sure I was there at my coaching centre," said Surender.

The hard work started paying dividends as Swastik started scoring runs in bulk. He hit 585 runs in a local tournament in 2019. He also started playing age-group cricket for his state. He also featured for India B during the period but it was his prolific form in the UP T20 League that put the spotlight on him. "This year, he performed exceptionally well in the state T20 league and also made his senior debut for the UP team in the 50-over tournament. He was in the squad for the Syed Mushtaq Ali T20 Trophy but didn't get a game."

More than Swastik, his father would be glued to the television when the mini-auction takes place And he is ready to accept whatever the outcome is. "We can only hope. No matter what the result is, I know my son deserves to play in the IPL. If it doesn't happen this season, it will happen the next season," signed off Surender.

BANvNZ: Second day's play washed out

MIRPUR (BANGLADESH): A day after 15 wickets tumbled, there wasn't a ball bowled on Thursday because of rain on Day 2 of the second cricket Test between Bangladesh and New Zealand. With no sign of the rain stopping, match officials called stumps early. Day three of the Test will start earlier than scheduled on Friday. Bangladesh has a 117-run lead and control of the match as it bids for a first ever Test cricket series win over New Zealand.

PREMIER LEAGUE

Emery's upward Villa dent Guardiola's City further

AFP @ Birmingham

ASTON Villa dealt a major blow to Manchester City's Premier League title challenge as Leon Bailey clinched a 1-0 win against the reeling champions on Wednesday.

Bailey's deflected second-half strike at Villa Park moved Unai Emery's side above spluttering City into third place.

Pep Guardiola's fourth-placed team have gone four league games without a win and sit six points behind leaders Arsenal. After draws with Chelsea, Liverpool and Tottenham, the treble winners desperately needed to beat Villa to keep in touch with the Gunners. Instead, they produced their worst performance of the damaging run and could easily have lost by more than one goal. City looked weary for long periods but there is little respite in sight.

Reacting to questions this week about City's blip, Guardiola boldly proclaimed his team will definitely retain the Premier League title. The City boss won't be panicking yet, after all they erased an eight-point gap to overhaul Arsenal in the closing weeks of last season's title race. But this was a major setback to their hopes of an unprecedented fourth successive Premier League crown. "Aston Villa were better. They played a fantastic game, we struggled to make our process," Guardiola said.

Aston Villa's Leon Bailey (C) celebrates after scoring the opening goal against Manchester City at Villa Park | AFP

Villa's 14th consecutive home league victory provided more evidence of the remarkable job done by Emery since he replaced the sacked Steven Gerrard last season.

Emery's team look genuine top-four contenders and Saturday's visit from Arsenal gives their manager a chance to prove a point to his old club, who are only four points above them.

"We did a fantastic match. When you are playing Manchester City you have to get your moments and try to control the game. We created chances but it was very tough," Emery said.

McTominay brace helps Utd

Manchester United secured three points, shrugging off a rare penalty miss from Bruno Fernandes in the first half. Chelsea's Cole Palmer finished an impressive team move on the stroke of half-time, but McTominay found Alejandro Garnacho's cross for his second with about 20 minutes left to lift United to sixth in the table, just three points behind City.

Results: Sheffield United 0-2 Liverpool, Fulham 5-0 Nottingham Forest, Crystal Palace 0-2 Bournemouth, Brighton 2-1 Brentford, Manchester United 2-1, Chelsea, Aston Villa 1-0 Manchester City.
